Nigeria Operational Plan Report Fy 2013 Aids Relief:

Distribution of Resources in the Nigerian Health Care System Anthony Okechukwu Nnadi, 2020-01-09 This publication representing the doctoral dissertation of Rev Fr Anthony Okechukwu Nnadi examines the healthcare system in Nigeria in the light of the Catholic social teaching He supports that the allocation of health care resources is not only a matter of organization but is also an ethical problem The debacles and failure of the Nigerian health system result from many factors including lack of will to implement the right policies on the ground corruption among the leaders lack of justice lack of respect for the dignity of each human person mismanagement and insufficient consideration and application of ethical principles in the administration of common good especially in the distribution of health care and social resources For the distribution of health care resources this doctoral dissertation suggests that priority be given to the basic health care needs of Nigerian citizens especially those who have no means of satisfying these needs themselves In this context the research affirms that great attention needs to be paid to ensuring that the principle of human dignity is completely respected in each and every policy in this important area This doctoral thesis is an ethical vision of social reality in Nigeria It proposes the person centred Catholic principles as a possible way forward in the distribution of health care resources in Nigeria It does not imply substituting the economic political and health care experts in offering technical solutions in their areas of competence The author is convinced that healthcare allocation is also an ethical issue that needs to be governed by ethical principles The key factors for choosing this theme are based on the author's knowledge of the deplorable condition of the health care system in Nigeria and his desire to save human lives Rev Fr Anthony Okechukwu Nnadi believes that we are all stewards of human life This implies a moral obligation to protect the dignity of the human person which is inseparable from protecting human life

State, Foreign Operations, and Related Programs Appropriations for 2015 United States. Congress. House. Committee on Appropriations. Subcommittee on State, Foreign Operations, and Related Programs, 2014

Evaluation of PEPFAR Division of Behavioral and Social Sciences and Education, Institute of Medicine, Board on Children, Youth, and Families, Board on Global Health, Committee on the Outcome and Impact Evaluation of Global HIV/AIDS Programs Implemented Under the Lantos-Hyde Act of 2008, 2013-06-27 The U S government supports programs to combat global HIV/AIDS through an initiative that is known as the President's Emergency Plan for AIDS Relief PEPFAR This initiative was originally authorized in the U S Leadership Against HIV/AIDS Tuberculosis and Malaria Act of 2003 and focused on an emergency response to the HIV/AIDS pandemic to deliver lifesaving care and treatment in low and middle income countries LMICs with the highest burdens of disease It was subsequently reauthorized in the Tom Lantos and Henry J Hyde U S Global Leadership Against HIV/AIDS Tuberculosis and Malaria Reauthorization Act of 2008 the Lantos Hyde Act Evaluation of PEPFAR makes recommendations for improving the U S government's bilateral programs as part of the U S response to global HIV/AIDS The overall aim of this evaluation is a forward looking approach to track and anticipate the evolution of the

U S response to global HIV to be positioned to inform the ability of the U S government to address key issues under consideration at the time of the report release

Africa and Global Health Governance Amy S. Patterson, 2018-03-01 A timely inquiry into how domestic politics and global health governance interact in Africa Global health campaigns development aid programs and disaster relief groups have been criticized for falling into colonialist patterns running roughshod over the local structure and authority of the countries in which they work Far from powerless however African states play complex roles in health policy design and implementation In Africa and Global Health Governance Amy S Patterson focuses on AIDS the 2014 2015 Ebola outbreak and noncommunicable diseases to demonstrate why and how African states accept challenge or remain ambivalent toward global health policies structures and norms Employing in depth analysis of media reports and global health data Patterson also relies on interviews and focus group discussions to give voice to the various agents operating within African health care systems including donor representatives state officials NGOs community based groups health activists and patients Showing the variety within broader patterns this clearly written book demonstrates that Africa s role in global health governance is dynamic and not without agency Patterson shows how for example African leaders engage with international groups attempting to maintain their own leadership while securing the aid their people need Her findings will benefit health and development practitioners scholars and students of global health governance and African politics

The Palgrave Handbook of Peacebuilding in Africa Tony Karbo, Kudrat Virk, 2018-01-30 This handbook offers a critical assessment of the African agenda for conflict prevention peacemaking peacekeeping and peacebuilding the challenges and opportunities facing Africa s regional organisations in their efforts towards building sustainable peace on the continent and the role of external actors including the United Nations Britain France and South Asian troop contributing countries In so doing it revisits the late Ali Mazrui s concept of Pax Africana calling on Africans to take responsibility for peace and security on their own continent The creation of the African Union in 2002 was an important step towards realising this ambition and has led to the development of a new continental architecture for more robust conflict management But as the volume s authors show the quest for Pax Africana faces challenges Combining thematic analyses and case studies this book will be of interest to both scholars and policymakers working on peace security and governance issues in Africa

International Studies Scott Straus, Barry Driscoll, 2025-07-29 In the Third Edition of International Studies Global Forces Interactions and Tensions award winning scholars Scott Straus and Barry Driscoll take an intellectually stimulating and empirical approach to global studies with a clear framework that helps students think about how key factors forces interactions and tensions contribute to world events and global problems The book grounds students in the field s core concepts to help learners with a wide variety of backgrounds and interests consider causes and effects of global problems

Nigeria Operational Plan Report Fy 2013 United States United States Department of State, 2014-11-12 The Federal Republic of Nigeria consists of six geo political zones that include thirty six 36 states and the Federal Capital Territory FCT which in turn contain seven hundred and seventy four 774 local government areas LGAs Nigeria occupies an area more than twice the size of the State of California In both geographic size and population many states are larger than various African countries The country has 3 46 million HIV positive individuals and constitutes the third greatest burden of HIV AIDS care and treatment worldwide Adding to this burden are the estimated 2 19million children orphaned by HIV AIDS 1 Nigeria also has one of the highest tuberculosis TB burdens in the world 311 100 000 population² and the largest TB burden in Africa Many TB cases go undetected despite increasing TB detection rates and TB program coverage This situation results in significant challenges for the HIV AIDS response due to the high rates of TB HIV co infection Since reporting the first case of AIDS in Nigeria in 1986 the epidemic has become generalized This illness affects all population groups and spares no geographical area Generalized prevalence among 15 49 year olds is about 3 6 percent³ but significantly higher rates exist among key populations including commercial sex workers 30 2 37 4 percent injecting drug users 5 6 percent and men who have sex with men 13 5 percent 4 Heterosexual transmission accounts for up to 95 percent of HIV infections Women account for close to 60 percent of all adults living with HIV 5

Natural Resource-Based Development in Africa Nathan Andrews,J. Andrew Grant,Jesse Salah Ovadia,2022-03-01 There is no question that Africa is endowed with abundant natural resources of different magnitudes However more than a decade of high commodity prices and new hydrocarbon discoveries across the continent has led countless international organizations donor agencies and non governmental organizations to devote considerable attention to the potential of natural resource based development Natural Resource Based Development in Africa places a particular emphasis on the actors that help us understand the extent to which resources could be transformed into broader developmental outcomes Based on a wide variety of primary sources and fieldwork including in person interviews and participant observations this collection contributes to both scholarly and policy discussions around the governance and economic development roles of local entrepreneurs transnational firms civil society groups local communities and government agencies in Africa s natural resource sectors Natural Resource Based Development in Africa explores the impact that these actors have on regional trends such as resource nationalism and local procurement policies as well as grassroots related issues such as poverty livelihoods gender equity development and human security
