

Section 5 (P. 66-84)

1. What happened in the camp on the eve of Rosh Hashanah?

On the eve of Rosh Hashanah, the last day of the "cursed" year, there was a thick soup given to the Jews. However, the Jews wanted to wait, despite their hunger, to have a special service to God, for better hope, and a new year.

2. After reading pages 66-68, describe how Elie's feelings about God and his religion have changed since the beginning of the book.

Elie's feelings about God and his religion have changed since the beginning of the book. At the beginning of Night, Elie was deeply religious and craved for knowledge about his religion. He also loved his God deeply. However, after some time in the concentration camps, Elie hates his God and rebels against Him often. Also, Elie feels like there is no need to do any of this Jewish stuff because he believes his God is silent and cruel.

3. What was Elie's decision about fasting on Yom Kippur, and why did he make that decision?

Elie's decision about fasting on Yom Kippur was that he would eat his daily ration. He did this to make his dad happy because the father said it was forbidden not to fast, and also because he believed there was no reason to fast. He turned his ration of soup into an act of rebellion against his God.

4. Identify the "beautiful present" the SS gave the men for the New Year (hint: the phrase is ironic).

The beautiful, ironic present the SS gave the men for the New Year was selection. This meant that an SS would examine them and whenever there was a Muselman (someone extremely frail), they were good for the crematorium. This is ironic because the beautiful present is a chance of death, which most people do not want.

5. What is the significance of the bell in Elie's daily life?
