Pound's translations consisting of Morand's two legendary collections The Night Giant Lorenzo Coltellacci, 2025-10-07
For fans of The Night Gardener and Larf this is a charming picture book about a mischievous giant who only comes out at night. Not everyone believes in the Giant. After all, he only comes out at night when everyone in the village is asleep. But those who believe see signs of him in the morning such as benches stacked into a tower or roofs that have changed overnight. One child claims to have seen him using cars as roller skates. No one's sure where the Giant goes during the day or who he really is. But they do know he'll be back again soon for more mischievous play. This perfect bedtime story captures the enchantment of nighttime and the childlike mystery of what goes on after you fall asleep A Night's Lodging Maksim Gorky, 1906
