

Roman Catholic Funeral Service Program: Honouring Faith and Remembering Loved Ones

In Singapore, Roman Catholic funeral services are deeply rooted in tradition and faith, providing solace and support to grieving families during their time of loss. These services, conducted with reverence and respect, honour the departed and offer comfort to those left behind.

Central to the Roman Catholic funeral service is the belief in the resurrection of the body and the soul's journey to eternal life with God. As such, these services are marked by rituals and prayers that reflect this belief, guiding both the departed and the mourners through the process of grieving and acceptance.

The Catholic funeral service typically begins with a Vigil, also known as the Wake, where family and friends gather to pay their respects to the deceased. This is often held at the funeral home or the family's residence, providing an opportunity for loved ones to share memories and offer condolences. During the Vigil, prayers such as the Rosary may be recited, along with readings from Scripture and hymns sung in remembrance of the departed.

Guide for Forming a Parish

Bereavement Ministry Robert Valle, Paula Kosin, 2023-02-01 All Christians are responsible for consoling those who have lost a loved one. An active parish bereavement ministry involves many parishioners performing various forms of compassionate service. In Guide for Forming a Parish Bereavement Ministry, author Robert Valle guides parish leaders toward creating a bereavement ministry that flows from the liturgical and pastoral vision of the Church's official funeral rites. He explains the theology and key pastoral insights of the Order of Christian Funerals (OCF) and outlines the phases of bereavement ministry from accompanying the bereaved at the time of death to the preparation of the funeral liturgies, then home visits and acts of compassion throughout the following year. This resource provides practical advice and downloadable materials for training ministers in the theological, spiritual, and human dimensions essential for effective bereavement ministry. Contributing author Paula Kosin provides scripts and other editable downloads for facilitating a grief support group. Guide for Forming a Parish Bereavement Ministry together with An Introduction to Bereavement Ministry: Caring for Those Who Mourn, a resource for bereavement ministers, and Grieving: A Spiritual Process for Catholics, a book for the grieving, provide the training, insight, and guidance for forming a parish bereavement ministry that will bring comfort and peace to all in your community who are grieving the loss of a loved one.

To Say a Few Words Michael A. Cymbala, 2014-08-31 This little booklet is designed for anyone who faces the difficult and important task of offering words of remembrance at a Catholic funeral. Both experienced and inexperienced speakers will benefit from this easy-to-read resource. It offers a simple, practical, and most importantly, discreet way of informing anyone asked to say a few words at a Catholic service on the rules that are involved while also offering practical advice on how to deliver the remarks in an artful and respectful manner. The Catholic Church's policies on the use of family-designated speakers at funerals, wakes, and memorial services, and the importance of their putting their remarks in a Christian context, are both directly and politely addressed. The booklet emphasizes the sacred elements of the occasion, offering speakers the opportunity to understand their role as something more serious than a toastmaster or even a comedian. Practical suggestions abound on how to form and deliver a concise and appropriate address well suited to a religious gathering. Three sample sets of remarks are included to give speakers a sense of what is possible and appropriate in different situations and venues. This booklet is also available as an e-book for those who are traveling or otherwise not available to obtain a printed copy in time to prepare their remarks.
