This is the pacing guide that I am using with my 5th grade students. It is aligned with the Common Core State Standard Initiative. This pacing guide is divided into a 32 week schedule in order to allow for one review week each quarter, which is not included in the pacing guide; review weeks will vary based on the needs of the students. Of course, you may need to rearrange some weeks to fit in with your school districts requirements.

I hope that you find this useful in planning out your 5th grade year!
Happy teaching!
