

A romantic couple is shown in a close embrace, about to kiss. The woman, on the left, has long brown hair and is wearing a shiny, long-sleeved magenta top. The man, on the right, has short brown hair and is wearing a white button-down shirt. They are positioned against a plain white background. The text 'Getting to know' is written in a cursive font above the word 'DADDY', which is in large, bold, maroon capital letters with a distressed texture. A horizontal line separates the two parts of the title.

Identity and Clothing in the Novels of Emile Zola was published by Legenda in 2004 Unspeakable Acts Doug W. Pryor,1999 A holistic sociological approach that explores why offenders sexually abuse children The sexual abuse of children is one of the most morally unsettling and emotionally inflammatory issues in American society today It has been estimated that roughly one out of every four girls and one in ten boys experience some form of unwanted sexual attention either inside or outside the family before they reach adulthood How should society deal with the sexual victimization of children Should known offenders be released back into our communities If so where and with what rights should they be allowed to live In Unspeakable Acts Douglas W Pryor argues that much of this debate designed to deal with abusers after they have offended ignores the important issue of why men cross these forbidden sexual boundaries to molest children in the first place and how the behavior can possibly be prevented before it starts Incorporating in depth interviews with more than thirty convicted child molesters Pryor explores how men become involved with breaking sexual boundaries with children He looks at how their lives prior to offending contributed to and led up to what they did the ways that initial interest in sex with children began the tactics offenders employed to molest their victims over time how they felt about and reacted to their behavior between offending episodes and how they were ultimately able to stop The author expands our understanding of this often reviled little understood group leaving us with the uneasy conclusion that the moral wall separating us from what is defined as extreme sick behavior is not as opaque as we would like to believe Thunder and Lightning Camille Flammarion,1905

The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and suspenseful novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
