Conference of the European Society for Central Asian Studies Tomasz Gacek,Jadwiga Pstrusińska,2009-10-02 This is an important book which will greatly aid readers in their knowledge of Central Asia one of the crucial regions in the contemporary world It contains papers reflecting the interdisciplinary quality of recent research carried out in many academic institutions dealing with the region In this volume which undertakes the supreme challenge of understanding this vast area of Eurasia acknowledged experts offer their findings on such important topics as history archaeology sociology anthropology language literature religion philosophy civil society and human rights political science economics and the environment This collection undoubtedly constitutes a key gateway to study of the region through the advanced accurate and scholarly information required by contemporary academia Irish Writing Stephen Regan, 2004 Can we not build up a national tradition a national literature which shall be none the less Irish in spirit from being English in language W B Yeats This anthology traces the history of modern Irish literature from the revolutionary era of the late eighteenth century to the early years of political independence From Charlotte Brooke and Edmund Burke to Elizabeth Bowen and Louis MacNeice the anthology shows how in forging a tradition of their own Irish writers have continually challenged and renewed the ways in which Ireland is imagined and defined The anthology includes a wide ranging and generous selection of fiction poetry and drama Three plays by W B Yeats Augusta Gregory and J M Synge are printed in their entirety along with the opening episode of James Joyce's Ulysses The volume also includes letters speeches songs memoirs essays and travel writings many of which are difficult to obtain elsewhere Stephen Regan's anthology vividly and valiantly presents a nation and a national literature coming into being Paul Muldoon In Search of Ancient Ireland Carmel McCaffrey, Leo Eaton, 2003-06-11 This engaging book traces the history archaeology and legends of ancient Ireland from 9000 B C when nomadic hunter gatherers appeared in Ireland at the end of the last Ice Age to 1167 A D when a Norman invasion brought the country under control of the English crown for the first time So much of what people today accept as ancient Irish history Celtic invaders from Europe turning Ireland into a Celtic nation St Patrick driving the snakes from Ireland and converting its people to Christianity is myth and legend with little basis in reality The truth is more interesting The Irish as the authors show are not even Celtic in an archaeological sense And there were plenty of bishops in Ireland before a British missionary called Patrick arrived But In Search of Ancient Ireland is not simply the story of events from long ago Across Ireland today are festivals places and folk customs that provide a tangible link to events thousands of years past The authors visit and describe many of these places and festivals talking to a wide variety of historians scholars poets and storytellers in the very settings where history happened Thus the book is also a journey on the ground to uncover ten thousand years of Irish identity In Search of Ancient Ireland is the official companion to the three part PBS documentary series With 14 black and white photos 6 b w illustrations and 1 map The Globalization of God Dara Molloy, 2015-11-10 Roman Catholicism was the first multinational corporation Preaching was the forerunner of advertising Roman Catholicism created the template for the spread of commercial globalisation through multinational corporations For global Christianity to succeed all local expressions of Christianity had to be suppressed These included Celtic Christianity For 800 years the Roman church tried to break the independent spirit of Celtic Christianity Despite being defeated in 1014 at the Battle of Clontarf the Irish Vikings through their urban bishops were key actors in the imposition of Roman episcopal structures of church throughout Ireland in the 12th century There was an invasion of Norman monks to Ireland which began in 1142 twenty five years before the military invasion in 1167 The ecclesiastical colonisation of Ireland meant that a Roman episcopal and diocesan structure replaced the Celtic monastic structure Norman colonisers destroyed Celtic monasteries and replaced them with imported European religious orders Cistercian monasteries in Ireland were required to have French abbots and sometimes these were imposed by force no Irishman was allowed to become a bishop or attain any ecclesiastical high office St Malachy of Armagh betrayed his own Celtic heritage and was a key figure in bringing about the ecclesiastical colonisation of Ireland Monotheism is the mythical container for globalization Humans will fail to return to a sustainable way of living on this planet until the mythological container of monotheism is replaced by new bioregional spiritualities that go beyond both monotheism and polytheism
