Challenging Inclusive Education Policy and Practice in Africa ,2018-11-26 It is a fundamental right for all children to be given access to quality education to ensure they reach their full potential as individuals a right which is reflected in international law in Article 26 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and supported by the Education for All Agenda 1990 and the United Nations Convention on the Rights of People with Disabilities and Optional Protocol 2006 Nation states across Africa have signed up to these protocols and remain committed to ensuring education for all children The progress globally however in the past 25 years including in Africa has been slow UNESCO 2015 Questions remain on why this is so and what can be done about it This book brings together researchers education policy makers and academics from the African community What is unique about this text is that it includes local insights narrated and critiqued by local professionals This book presents a wide range of African countries across the continent to provide a critical overview of the key issues affecting developments It questions the origins of ideas and definitions around inclusive education and the impact it has made on policy and ultimately practice within local socio cultural and economic communities both urban and rural It highlights positive developments as well as challenges and provides a deep understanding of why the process of implementing inclusive education is so complex in the African continent It provides an understanding of what is needed to develop a more sustainable model of inclusive education across the continent and within specific countries Promoting equality and non-discrimination for persons with disabilities Waddington, Lisa,Broderick, Andrea,2017-03-27 Equality and non discrimination A core principle of all human rights and fundamental freedoms Ensuring equal opportunities for persons with disabilities is an important facilitator of participation and inclusion in society Both the United Nations Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities UNCPRD and the Council of Europe Disability Strategy 2017 2023 address equality and equalisation of opportunities for persons with disabilities Article 5 of the UNCPRD requires States to adopt positive measures aimed at ensuring equality across the substantive rights in the Convention The Council of Europe Disability Strategy aims at guiding and supporting the activities of Council of Europe member States in their implementation of the UNCPRD and Council of Europe standards regarding disability and similarly addresses equality and non discrimination The overall goal of this study is to analyse the obligations contained in the UNCPRD regarding equality and non discrimination and to provide examples of good national practices regarding equality and non discrimination Inclusion, Participation and Democracy: What is the Purpose? J. Allan,2006-04-11 Offering a cross cultural perspective this book contains papers from internationally renowned scholars who provide fresh insights into the goals and ambitions for inclusion participation and democracy and how these might be realized today The insider accounts highlight the complex political and cultural changes required to achieve success with the inclusion project This book is for researchers studying inclusion teacher educators and teachers Model policy for inclusive ICTs in education for persons with disabilities Watkins, Amanda, 2014-04-07

Implementing Inclusive Education Richard Rieser, 2012 This revised and expanded second edition of Implementing Inclusive Education shows how Commonwealth countries are attempting to undertake inclusion in education and will encourage all those charged with ensuring education for all to make certain that disabled children are fully included in all aspects of the education system Handbook of Research on Inclusive and Accessible Education Maguvhe, Mbulaheni Obert, Mpya, Nwacoye Gladness, Sadiki, Marubini Christinah, 2024-02-16 In the vast expanse of education a pervasive issue remains in the marginalization and lack of visibility of individuals with disabilities Despite a strong desire for inclusivity recent research suggests that fewer than 5% of children with disabilities in 51 countries across sub Saharan Africa and South Asia are enrolled in primary school This exclusion is not solely in enrollment numbers even those who manage to attend face learning environments ill equipped to adapt to their needs leading to further isolation Girls with disabilities in particular endure heightened vulnerability to abuse reflecting a systemic failure to provide an environment that fosters equality dignity and respect for all The Handbook of Research on Inclusive and Accessible Education emerges as an inspiration for change providing a profound solution to the persistent issue of exclusion The book encapsulates a collective effort to reimagine education It advocates for a paradigm shift moving away from the confinement of special schools and towards inclusive mainstream settings By addressing controversies sharing successes and outlining prospects the book serves as a comprehensive guide for special school governing bodies curriculum advisors university lecturers and all stakeholders committed to reshaping education Inclusive Teaching: Presence in the Classroom Cornell Thomas, 2014-12-29 In this volume the authors focus on the importance of inclusive teaching and the role faculty can play in helping students achieve though not necessarily in the same way To teach with a focus on inclusion means to believe that every person has the ability to learn It means that most individuals want to learn to improve their ability to better understand the world in which they live and to be able to navigate their pathways of life This volume includes the following topics best practices for teaching students with social economic gender or ethnic differences adjustments to the teaching and learning process to focus on inclusion strategies for teaching that help learners connect what they know with the information presented environments that maximize learners academic and social growth The premise of inclusive teaching works to demonstrate that all people can and do learn Educators and administrators can incorporate the techniques of inclusive learning and help learners retain more information This is the 140th volume of the quarterly Jossey Bass higher education series New Directions for Teaching and Learning It offers a comprehensive range of ideas and techniques for improving college teaching based on the experience of seasoned instructors and the latest findings of educational and psychological researchers Democracy and Education in Namibia and Beyond Amukugo, Elizabeth M., 2017-07-19 The Namibian constitution makes full provision for education as a fundamental human right and freedom Three years into independence as part of the government's educational policy the Education for All Policy was launched as a stepping stone to free quality education However inequities have become widely pronounced within the Namibian educational system Democracy and Education in Namibia and beyond debates the education democracy nexus in Namibia and the southern African context It defines and explores the meaning of democracy and related concepts It also looks at what democracy means in the context of human rights and access to education The ten chapters in this collection interrogate the strengths and limitations of education as an instrument of social change and question whether or not the Namibian educational objectives and practices do develop and help to sustain a democratic culture in Namibia The authors in the collection have drawn material from their own teaching and research experience across the fields of education and social science in Namibia and beyond and present their findings in a pedagogical framework suitable as a challenging text for tertiary students At a time when education is in crisis especially in South Africa where strident calls for free tertiary education and Africanisation of the curriculum are spreading like wildfire this book gives scholarly insight into the history and social conditions that gave rise to our current predicament Schooling and Difference in Africa George Jerry Sefa Dei, Riyadh Ahmed Shahjahan, Sharon Eblaghie Bahador, Alireza Asgharzadeh, 2006-01-01 Since the 1950s when most African countries gained political independence schooling has presented very difficult challenges In the discussion of these challenges however the issue of diversity has received relatively little attention Schooling and Difference in Africa aims to understand how differences such as ethnicity class gender language religion and disability play out in African schools systems and more specifically in Ghana Together George J Sefa Dei Alireza Asgharzadeh Sharon Eblaghie Bahador and Riyadh Ahmed Shahjahan promote educational inclusion in the context of African schooling The aspects of diversity explored in this study include minority majority relations race ethnicity gender language class religion and physical disability The authors build their analyses of these issues around a series of interviews which project a perspective that policy makers and administrators rarely seek out By studying the challenges of inclusive education in Ghana and further by making comparisons with the Canadian context this volume seeks to shed light on the ongoing struggle for an empowering school system in Africa and elsewhere Inclusive Education Nesrin Oruç Ertürk, Aynur Yürekli, 2023 Inclusive Education Definition and Conceptual Framework is a recourse for the readers who would like to learn more about the background of inclusion and diversity in higher education in Flanders Germany Greece Poland Türkiye and the UK Rather than the differences the authors wanted to discuss the common ground of how inclusive education will make higher education more functional for both students and teachers This book is an intellectual output of the European Project JOINME2 Promoting Inclusive Education in Tertiary Level aiming at equipping Higher Education HE instructors with the necessary competencies in equality and diversity to promote a learning environment which is more inclusive and therefore more effective because only then does a conversation about real education become possible The Wiley Handbook of Diversity in Special Education Marie Tejero Hughes, Elizabeth Talbott, 2017-02-21 The Wiley Handbook of Diversity in Special Education is a state of the art reference showcasing cutting edge special education research with a focus on children and youth with disabilities from diverse cultural ethnic linguistic and economic backgrounds Cutting edge special education research focusing on children and youth with disabilities from diverse cultural ethnic linguistic and economic backgrounds An authoritative contribution to the field this work charts a new path to effective interventions and sets an agenda for future research Addresses disabilities from an international perspective

Autism Mary Clasquin-Johnson, Dikeledi Mahlo, Michel Clasquin-Johnson, 2023-02-10 This book is written at a time of a paradigm shift in the African continent where dependence on western epistemologies and ontologies are giving way to African indigenous knowledge systems Africa has been an importer of knowledge from the west since time immemorial and this book contributes to the body of knowledge on autism spectrum disorder ASD from the African perspective As a result decoloniality and Inclusive Education have gained traction within the academic discourse with University of South Africa UNISA hosting decoloniality annual conference and a summer school to stimulate academic discussions and debates with a focus on African indigenous knowledge systems and theoretical lenses as opposed to the western epistemologies The book also demystifies some of the misconceptions that children with ASD are a curse and punishment from God or gods Among others Ubuntu seems to be the dominant theoretical framework underpinning some of the research studies reported in this book
