The Brigandshaw Chronicles Box Set (Books 1 to 3) Peter Rimmer, 2018-06-28 Religion, Women's Health Rights, and Sustainable Development in Zimbabwe: Volume 2 Sophia Chirongoma, Molly Manyonganise, Ezra Chitando, 2022-08-26 This volume brings to the fore the interface of religion women's sexual reproductive health and rights SRHR and the sustainable development goals SDGs in Zimbabwe. It emphasizes that empowering African women is a pivotal pillar for attaining sustainable development. Contributors discuss the need for implementing structural changes as a prerequisite for social progress and development to occur in Southern Africa. They interrogate the extent to which religious beliefs and practices either promote or impede women's SRHR. The contributors also proffer several ways in which addressing the themes of health for all and equality for all women and girls can make a meaningful contribution towards the fulfillment of the goals set for Agenda 2030.

Reading Contemporary African Literature Reuben Makayiko Chirambo, J. K. S. Makokha, 2013 Reading Contemporary African Literature brings together scholarship on critical debates about and examples of reading African literature in all genres: poetry, fiction and drama including popular culture. The anthology offers studies of African literature from interdisciplinary perspectives that employ sociological, historical and ethnographic besides literary analysis of the literatures. It has assembled critical and researched essays on a range of topics: theoretical and empirical by renowned critics and theorists of African literature that evaluate and provide examples of reading African literature that should be of interest to academics, researchers and students of African literature, culture and history amongst other subjects. Some of the essays examine authors that have received little or no attention to date in books on recent African literature. These essays provide new insights and scholarship that should broaden and deepen our understanding and appreciation of African literature.

Now That the Dust Has Settled Athanasio Dzadagu, 2015-03-26 In this book I try to explore why one section of the Catholic Community connected with the late Archbishop Chakaipa was overtaken by great remorse when he died while another went into jubilation. This leads me into the examination of what kind of person Archbishop Chakaipa was. I do this in the context of his family background and his priestly and Episcopal ministries. He was of the Unendoro clan with a history tracing back to Karanga roots. In his Seminary years he wrote five Shona novels which became very influential in developing Shona literacy. He earned enduring respect across the entire Zimbabwean nation for this achievement. Within Church circles Archbishop Chakaipa's name is synonymous with the policy of self-reliance which was his signal achievement in the Archdiocese of Harare. He was determined to see the development of indigenous Zimbabwean writers frustrated that the world of ideas in Zimbabwe was dominated by Eurogenic of European origin missionaries. In his view such Eurogenic intellectual domination undermined Zimbabwean and African independence. In the book I argue that while Archbishop Chakaipa was a hero indeed one deserving of canonisation as a Catholic saint, true respect for him should also acknowledge his negative qualities.
