Sailing With Paul Guidance For Young People In The Lord:

Sailing with Paul H. A. Ironside, 2014-10-28 There are many lessons to be learned from a careful study of Luke's account of Paul's voyage to Rome. Taken literally it shows us in a wonderful way the personal care of the Lord Jesus Christ for His beloved servant in a time of great stress and difficulty. The particular incident recorded in Acts 27:21-26 is that to which I especially desire to draw each reader's attention. For long weary days and nights neither sun nor stars had been visible. The captain of the ship was in despair, the mariners hopeless. Then it was that Paul, the prisoner of the Lord, Ephesians 4:1, how lovely a title, not a prisoner of Caesar nor of Rome but of the Lord, became the comforter of all in the ship, comforting them with the comfort wherewith he had just been comforted of God. For to him an angel of the Lord had appeared standing by him and saying, "Fear not, Paul, thou must be brought before Caesar, and lo, God hath given thee all them that sail with thee." It is my purpose in this pamphlet to trace out some of the precious truths Paul was chosen to make known for our eternal blessing. Only let each reader be sure he or she is one who sails with Paul, for to none other do they apply. Noah's Park Children's Church Leader's Guide, Red Edition, 2007. The crafts in this book coordinate with each lesson in the Noah's Park Leader's Guide. Each craft activity is designed to help reinforce the Bible story the children have heard and participated in during the lesson. The craft is also designed to help the children and their parents extend the learning even further by linking it to activities they can do at home during the following week. Each craft activity in the book has a list of supplies which should be obtained prior to the session.
