The second part, Soldiering, Deployment and Beyond, considers the complexities involved in soldiering in view of the changing nature of warfare, generating a focal discourse on various aspects of military leadership, soldier resilience and post-traumatic growth in the face of extreme situations, bravery and character strengths and transitioning to civilian life. In the final section, Making a Choice: Mental Health Issues and Prospects in the Military, the contributors focus on the challenges and practices involved in maintaining the mental health of the soldier, covering issues ranging from stress, mental health and well-being through to suicide risk and its prevention, intervention and management strategies, moral injury and post-traumatic stress disorder.
