Smith,2023-05-15 The Rocket Lab Maurice Zucrow Purdue University and America s Race to Space focuses on the golden era of space exploration between 1946 and 1966 specifically the life and times of Purdue University s Dr Maurice J Zucrow a pioneering teacher and researcher in aerospace engineering Zucrow taught America s first university course in jet and rocket propulsion wrote the field s first textbook and established the country s first educational Rocket Lab He was part of a small circle of innovators who transformed Purdue into the country s largest engineering university which became a cradle of astronauts Taking a chronological and thematic approach The Rocket Lab weaves between the local and national drawing in rival universities especially Harvard MIT Princeton and Caltech Also covered is Zucrow s role in the national project system of research and development through World War II and the Cold War At Aerojet he was one of the country s original project engineers dedicated to scientific technical expertise and the stepwise approach He made vanguard power plant contributions to the Northrop Flying Wing as well as the Corporal Nike and Atlas missiles among others Zucrow s work in propulsion helped to improve the country s arsenal of ballistic missiles and space launchers and as a teacher he educated the first generation of aerospace engineers This book elevates Zucrow and the central role he played in getting the United States to space      Sailors, Scientists, and Rockets Albert B. Christman, 1971      Genetic Resources as Natural Information Manuel Ruiz Muller, 2015-09-16 Demonstrating the shortcomings of current policy and legal approaches to access and benefit sharing ABS in the Convention on Biological Diversity CBD this book recognizes that genetic resources are widely distributed across countries and that bilateral contracts undermine fairness and equity The book offers a practical and feasible regulatory alternative to ensure the goal of fairness and equity is effectively and efficiently met Through a legal analysis that also incorporates historic economic and sociological perspectives the book argues that genetic resources are not tangible resources but information It shows that the existing preference for bilateralism and contracts reflects resistance on the part of many of the stakeholders involved in the CBD process to recognize them as such ABS issues respond very well to the economics of information yet as the author explains these have been either sidelined or overlooked At a time when the Nagoya Protocol on ABS has renewed interest in feasible policy options the author provides a constructive and provocative critique The institutional policy and regulatory framework constitute bounded openness under which fairness and equity emerge      Shaky Foundations Mark Solovey, 2013-02-08 Numerous popular and scholarly accounts have exposed the deep impact of patrons on the production of scientific knowledge and its applications Shaky Foundations provides the first extensive examination of a new patronage system for the social sciences that emerged in the early Cold War years and took more definite shape during the 1950s and early 1960s a period of enormous expansion in American social science By focusing on the military the Ford Foundation and the National Science Foundation Mark Solovey shows how this patronage system presented social scientists and other interested parties including natural scientists and politicians with new opportunities to work out the scientific identity social implications and public policy uses of academic social research Solovey also examines significant criticisms of the new patronage system which contributed to widespread efforts to rethink and reshape the politics patronage social science nexus starting in the mid 1960s Based on extensive archival research Shaky Foundations addresses fundamental questions about the intellectual foundations of the social sciences their relationships with the natural sciences and the humanities and the political and ideological import of academic social inquiry
