Teaching Design Meredith Davis, 2017-07-11 An Expertly Written Guidebook to Teaching Design at All Levels Teaching Design provides a practical foundation for teaching about and through design The exploding interest in design and design thinking calls for qualified faculty members who are well prepared for a variety of institutional settings and content areas While designers know their disciplines they frequently lack experience in constructing responsive curricula and pedagogies for rapidly evolving professions And while K 12 educators are trained for the classroom their ability to transform teaching and learning through design is limited by a shortfall in professional literature Davis s extensive experience in education offers a detailed path for the development of curricula The book addresses writing objectives and learning outcomes that succeed in the counting and measuring culture of institutions but also meet the demands of a twenty first century education An inventory of pedagogical strategies suggests approaches to learning that serve both college professors and K 12 teachers who want to actively engage students in critical and creative thinking Sections on assessment make the case for performance based activities that provide credible evidence of student learning Davis also discusses the nature of contemporary problems and teaching strategies that are well matched to growing complexity rapid technological change and increased demand for interdisciplinary engagement Examples in Teaching Design span the design disciplines and draw on Davis s experience in teaching seminars for college faculty graduate courses for design students seeking academic careers and workshops for K 12 teachers converting their classrooms into centers for innovation

Bringing History Alive through Local People and Places Lynne Dixon, Alison Hales, 2013-12-04 A much needed and delightful book It shows how history can be taught with the meaningful experiences of each child at its centre making connections between the child the locality and community the national and global past and concepts of time Throughout the authors empower teachers to adopt their philosophy by showing them how to plan select resources and strategies and reflect on ideas and case studies Hilary Cooper Emeritus professor of history and pedagogy The University of Cumbria UK Bringing History Alive through Local People and Places puts the local environment and community at the heart of history showing how it can be used as the context for successful history teaching across the primary age range It considers how to develop children s concepts and skills through local history how to link local national and global aspects of history and helps you develop your own historical knowledge understanding and confidence in teaching the subject Practical topics explored include Investigating children s cultural and geographical roots through fieldwork Finding and visiting local museums archives and heritage sights Choosing and using resources Using significant people events and buildings to link with national history Environmental education and sustainable development through local history Understanding the links between history and everyday life Planning and assessing history Based on the latest research and practice in the field Bringing History Alive through Local People and Places offers an exciting template of creative ideas and activities to show teachers how they can make history relevant to all children Asia in International Relations Pinar

Bilgin,L.H.M. Ling,2017-02-01 Asia in International Relations decolonizes conventional understandings and representations of Asia in International Relations IR This book opens by including all those geographical and cultural linkages that constitute Asia today but are generally ignored by mainstream IR Covering the Indian subcontinent Turkey the Mediterranean Iran the Arab world Ethiopia and Central Northeast Southeast Asia the volume draws on rich literatures to develop our understanding of power relations in the world s largest continent Contributors de colonize de imperialize and de Cold War the region to articulate an alternative narrative about Asia world politics and IR This approach reframes old problems in new ways with the possibility of transforming them rather than recycling the same old approaches with the same old intractable outcomes

Raw Deal Steven Hill,2015-10-20 What s going to happen to my job That s what an increasing number of anxious Americans are asking themselves The US workforce which has been one of the most productive and wealthiest in the world is undergoing an alarming transformation Increasing numbers of workers find themselves on shaky ground turned into freelancers temps and contractors Even many full time and professional jobs are experiencing this precarious shift Within a decade a near majority of the 145 million employed Americans will be impacted Add to that the steamroller of automation robots and artificial intelligence already replacing millions of workers and projected to obsolesce millions more and the jobs picture starts looking grim Now a weird yet historic mash up of Silicon Valley technology and Wall Street greed is thrusting upon us the latest economic fraud the so called sharing economy with companies like Uber Airbnb and TaskRabbit allegedly liberating workers to become independent and their own CEOs hiring themselves out for ever smaller jobs and wages while the companies profit But this share the crumbs economy is just the tip of a looming iceberg that the middle class is drifting toward Raw Deal How the Uber Economy and Runaway Capitalism Are Screwing American Workers by veteran journalist Steven Hill is an expos that challenges conventional thinking and the hype celebrating this new economy by showing why the vision of the techno sapien leaders and their Ayn Rand libertarianism is a dead end In Raw Deal Steven Hill proposes pragmatic policy solutions to transform the US economy and its safety net and social contract launching a new kind of deal to restore power back into the hands of American workers
