entrepreneurship in general there is no reference on East Asian entrepreneurship This is the first of its kinds in the market The volume provides a useful reference for those who want to know East Asian entrepreneurship and business systems It also provides many excellent cases and illustrations on the growth of entrepreneurial firms and the rise of branded products in East Asia Policy makers or scholars who are interested in entrepreneurship small and medium sized enterprises Asian business systems international business innovation and technology management economic development strategic management and East Asian studies would benefit from this volume The volume contains two parts The first part is the key concepts associate with entrepreneurship and East Asian firm growth and transformation The second part presents cases of entrepreneurial firms and their founders in East Asia including Japan South Korea Taiwan Hong Kong and China With the handbook scholars students and policy makers can grab some basic ideas how entrepreneurs and firms in East Asia compete and survive in the world market and understand why and how East Asia economies can emerge as one of the most dynamic regions in the world Part I concepts relating to Entrepreneurship Guanxi Catching up strategies Types of entrepreneurship Business System Strategic Management Leadership Part II cases cover variedly from manufacturing to services industries and specifically including traditional and newly corporations ranging from toys convenient stores fast fashion high tech to catering and service Written by experts in their respective areas Handbook of East Asia entrepreneurship is an excellent review of theories policies and empirical evidences on important topics in Entrepreneurship in East Asian economic development The book is both a superb teaching tool and a valuable handbook in development economics HWM ,2004-07 Singapore s leading tech magazine gives its readers the power to decide with its informative articles and in depth reviews

HWM ,2008-07 Singapore s leading tech magazine gives its readers the power to decide with its informative articles and in depth reviews Legitimizing Television Michael Z Newman,Elana Levine,2012-02-27 Legitimizing Television Media Convergence and Cultural Status explores how and why television is gaining a new level of cultural respectability in the 21st century Once looked down upon as a plug in drug offering little redeeming social or artistic value television is now said to be in a creative renaissance with critics hailing the rise of Quality series such as Mad Men and 30 Rock Likewise DVDs and DVRs web video HDTV and mobile devices have shifted the longstanding conception of television as a household appliance toward a new understanding of TV as a sophisticated high tech gadget Newman and Levine argue that television s growing prestige emerges alongside the convergence of media at technological industrial and experiential levels Television is permitted to rise in respectability once it is connected to more highly valued media and audiences Legitimation works by denigrating ordinary television associated with the past distancing the television of the present from the feminized and mass audiences assumed to be inherent to the old TV It is no coincidence that the most validated programming and technologies of the convergence era are associated with a more privileged viewership The legitimization of television articulates the medium with the masculine over the feminine the elite over the mass reinforcing cultural hierarchies that have long perpetuated inequalities of gender and class Legitimizing Television urges readers to move beyond the question of taste whether TV is good or bad and to focus instead on the cultural political and economic issues at stake in television s transformation in the digital age
