Beyond Reading, Writing, and Arithmetic Laura Jean Colker,1997 Bilingual and Multilingual Education in the 21st Century Christian Abello-Contesse,Paul M. Chandler,María Dolores López-Jiménez,Rubén Chacón-Beltrán,2013-10-30 Bilingual education is one of the fastest growing disciplines within applied linguistics This book includes the work of 20 specialists working in various educational contexts across Europe Latin America and North America to create a volume which is both comprehensive in scope and multidimensional in its coverage of current bilingual initiatives The central themes of this volume which draws on past experiences of bilingual education include issues in language use in classrooms at elementary secondary and tertiary levels participant perspectives on bilingual education experiences and the language needs of bi and multilingual students in monolingual schools This collection will be of interest to teachers and administrators in bi and multilingual education programs as well as scholars working in the field of language education Resources in Education ,1995 Research in Education ,1973-12 Linguistics and Language Behavior Abstracts ,1997 US Education in a World of Migration Jill Koyama,Mathangi Subramanian,2014-03-14 Given the protracted varied and geographically expansive changes in migration over time it is difficult to establish an overarching theory that adequately analyzes the school experiences of immigrant youth in the United States This volume extends the scholarly work on these experiences by exploring how immigrants carve out new identities construct meanings and negotiate spaces for themselves within social structures created or mediated by education policy and practice It highlights immigrants that position themselves within global movements while experiencing the everyday effects of federal state and local education policy a phenomenon referred to as glocal global local or localized global phenomena Chapter authors acknowledge and honor the agency that immigrants wield and combine social theories and qualitative methods to empirically document the ways in which immigrants take active roles in enacting education policy Surveying immigrants from China Bangladesh India Haiti Japan Colombia and Liberia this volume offers a broad spectrum of immigrant experiences that problematize policy narratives that narrowly define notions of immigrant citizenship and student Clearinghouse Review ,1991-04 Creating Contexts for Second Language Acquisition Arnulfo G. Ramirez,1995 Foreign Language Program Articulation Carolyn Lally,2001-01-30 Few matters induce more dialogue among foreign language educators than the problem of students transition between levels of language study Secondary school teachers worry about how best to prepare their students for the demands of postsecondary language study College instructors struggle with how to integrate a diversely prepared freshman population into their curriculum The mission of this volume has been to assemble the theory research and vision of leaders in the field of foreign language articulation into a single volume which will benefit foreign language educators students program administrators and researchers by presenting models of the most recent articulation efforts in the United States Readers are provided with practical suggestions for facilitating placement at the local level and offered theoretical direction for the future The scope of this work is broad enough to reflect the experience and observations of most educators grappling with placement issues while chapter themes offer concrete and theoretical insight into many individual facets of articulation Adult Vocational

ESL Jo Ann Crandall,1979 Clinical Guide to Effective Psychological Assessment and Report Writing Rosemary Flanagan,2024-09-17 The book examines the preparation and presentation of psychological data reports for various stakeholders e g teachers parents caregivers It details strategies for clear and effective prose and visuals that reach beyond the narrative and emphasize data integration Chapters are organized around specific themes contained in the overall report and its sections e g cognitive achievement social emotional personality as well as the process of data reporting its description and eventual communication to consumers The volume addresses the rationale for and considerations important to carrying out this mission including reporting and explaining data obtained from English language learners ELLs It provides examples of sample data sets detailing how to apply and illustrate these principles and reflect contemporary data interpretation In addition the book provides checklists as well as appendices and tables that should be considered when preparing reports The book discusses the processes and mechanics of integrating data within and across sections of reports thereby providing alternatives to strictly boilerplate reports as well as practical recommendations that can be readily implemented to benefit students Key areas of coverage include Preparing psychological reports for all stakeholders Data presentations for lay
