Guinea International Monetary Fund. African Dept.,2016-04-04 This report reviews Guinea s economic performance under the program supported by an Extended Credit Facility ECF arrangement Guinea was declared free of the Ebola epidemic at end 2015 and after two years of stagnant activity growth is expected to rebound this year After solid performance in 2014 ECF program implementation weakened in 2015 Following last October s Presidential elections there has been a concerted effort to bring the ECF supported program back on track Macroeconomic policies for 2016 aim to improve reserves coverage to three months of imports and keep inflation within single digit figures as envisioned in the 2015 ECF supported program The 2016 budget envisions a significant broad based fiscal contraction English Legal System Helen Kotecha Rutherford (Birju Macfarlane, Angela),Birju Kotecha,Angela Macfarlane,2024 Clear complete and contextualized this guide to the English legal system provides the strongest foundation for students at the start of their studies Straightforward explanations of key topics are paired with learning features showcasing the law in its everyday context to give students a firm grasp of the fundamentals of the legal system English Legal System Steve Wilson,Stephen R. Wilson,Helen Rutherford,Tony Storey,Natalie Wortley,2018 Clear complete and contextualized this guide to the English legal system provides the strongest foundation for students at the start of their studies Straightforward explanations of key topics are paired with learning features showcasing the law in its everyday context to give students a firm grasp on the fundamentals of the legal system The Report: Oman 2016 Oxford Business Group,2016-01-12 Oman s GDP grew 4.6% between 2013 and 2014 according to the Oman Central Bank with hydrocarbons the main driver of the economy at almost 50% of GDP Although the dip in oil prices has put pressure on government revenues authorities are pressing ahead with spending plans for the sector particularly in the downstream segment The country s infrastructure expansion plans are also moving forward particularly at the country s three ports as the country seeks to leverage its strategic position on the Strait of Hormuz and establish itself as a global transport and logistics hub Feeding off this development drive are the sultanate s banks with project finance regarded as one of the most promising areas for lending growth In the longer term Oman Vision 2020 seeks to boost private sector participation in the economy and fuel SME growth in key sectors including construction retail tourism and transport Republic of Serbia International Monetary Fund. European Dept.,2016-12-21 This paper discusses Serbia s Sixth Review Under the Stand by Arrangement and Modification of the Arrangement Review Schedule The program remains on track and the economy continues to strengthen Significant fiscal overperformance and renewed efforts to address structural weaknesses have helped boost confidence This along with a healthy credit recovery on the back of substantial monetary policy easing has helped restore robust growth while persistently low inflation has reinforced recovery in real incomes Public debt has started to decline The IMF staff supports the authorities request for the completion of the sixth review under the Stand by Arrangement and a shift to semiannual review OECD

Multi-level Governance Studies Making the Most of Public Investment in the Eastern Slovak Republic OECD,2016-04-01 The Slovak Republic has undergone significant change in the past decade While growth has been impressive compared to OECD countries overall but benefits have not accrued equally across the country This study provides recommendations to make the most of public investment in the Slovak Republic

Support Not Surveillance: How to solve the teacher retention crisis Mary Bousted,2022-04-08 Why are so many teachers leaving the profession increasingly early in their careers What harm is being done to pupils educational prospects by persistent teacher shortages Why are teachers held uniquely responsible for the effects of poverty on children s progress and attainment What are the unintended consequences of rushed government education policy making And what can be done about all of the above Supported by the latest international and national evidence Support Not Surveillance seeks to address these important questions Laying bare how the inadequacy of Westminster policies is compounded by an unfair Ofsted inspection regime Dr Mary Bousted draws on her years of expertise and access to decision makers to expose the gap between ministerial rhetoric and the daily reality encountered by teachers in their classrooms across England Ending on a set of proposals to move beyond the seemingly perennial crisis in teacher recruitment and retention Support Not Surveillance is an unflinching call to end the failed experiment of government interventionism in classrooms

Voluntary Sector Philippa Tomczak, 2016-10-04 Winner of the 2017 British Society of Criminology Book Prize The penal voluntary sector and the relationships between punishment and charity are more topical than ever before In recent years in England and Wales the sector has featured significantly in both policy rhetoric and academic commentary Penal voluntary organisations are increasingly delivering prison and probation services under contract and this role is set to expand However the diverse voluntary organisations which comprise the sector their varied relationships with statutory agencies and the effects of such work remain very poorly understood This book provides a wide ranging and rigorous examination of this policy relevant but complex and little studied area It explores what voluntary organisations are doing with prisoners and probationers how they manage to undertake their work and the effects of charitable work with prisoners and probationers The author uses original empirical research and an innovative application of actor network theory to enable a step change in our understanding of this increasingly significant sector and develops the policy centric accounts produced in the last decade to illustrate how voluntary organisations can mediate the experiences of imprisonment and probation at the micro and macro levels Demonstrating how the legacy of philanthropic work and neoliberal policy reforms over the past thirty years have created a complex three tier penal voluntary sector of diverse organisations this cutting edge interdisciplinary text will be of interest to criminologists sociologists of work and industry and those engaged in the voluntary sector A Comparative Guide to the Asian Infrastructure Investment Bank Natalie Lichtenstein, 2018-04-04 The Asian Infrastructure Investment Bank first opened in 2016 is a 100 billion dollar multilateral development bank purpose built to support infrastructure projects that enhance regional economic productivity Its arms reach far in its first two years AIIB has financed transport systems such as national motorways in Pakistan railways in Oman and rural roads in India energy projects including natural gas pipelines in Azerbaijan and hydropower plants in Tajikistan and the redevelopment of impoverished areas in Indonesia Initiated by China its membership is global with regional powers from Korea to Saudi Arabia and key players from Europe Africa and Latin America In a text that will appeal to general readers and legal specialists alike Natalie Lichtenstein examines the Bank s mandate investment operations finance governance and institutional set up as well as providing detailed analyses of the similarities and differences it has with other development banks charting AIIB s story so far and anticipating its future
