The English Catalogue of Books ... Sampson Low, 1903 The Library of John Quinn John Quinn, 1923 Nā Mele o Hawai'i Nei Samuel H. Elbert, Noelani K. Mahoe, 2021-05-25 Here for the first time is a large collection of Hawaiian songs in an authoritative text with translation music not included The texts have never before been written consistently with the glottal stops indicating syllabic breaks between vowels and macrons indicating long vowels and stresses that make the words pronounceable by those unfamiliar with the Hawaiian language Many of the songs have not been translated before or have only been freely adapted rather than translated These 101 songs are all postmissionary and owe their musical origin to missionary hymns although only a few are religious None are technically chants though some are chants that have been edited and set to music They date from the mid 1850s most are from the time of the monarchy to 1968 the date of Mary Kawena Pukui's translation of Christmas songs Nearly all of these songs are sung today and are well known to Hawaiian singers Included are love songs and Christmas songs There is an exhaustive introduction which includes classification and arrangement of the songs a note on the composers and analysis of the structure symbolism and meanings of the songs and a note on the translations and on the poetic vocabulary of the Hawaiian words The English Catalogue of Books

Published from January, 1835, to January, 1863, 1864 The British Empire Series, 1899 English Novel Hist 1895-1920 David Trotter, 2022-02-22 First Published in 1993 Written specifically for students and assuming no prior knowledge of the subject David Trotter's The English Novel in History 1895 1920 provides the first detailed and fully comprehensive analysis of early twentieth century English fiction Whereas all previous studies have been rigorously selective Trotter looks at over 140 novelists across the whole spectrum of fiction from the innovations of Joyce's Ulysses through to popular mass market genres such as detective stories and spy thrillers By examining the novels in both stylistic and historical terms David Trotter looks at the ways in which writers responded to contemporary preoccupations such as the spectacle of consumption and the growth of suburbia or to anxieties about the decline of Empire racial degeneration and sexual anarchy He also challenges the view that literature of the period can be interpreted as a neat procession from realism to Modernism

The Conduct of War, 1789-1961 Maj.-Gen J. F. C. Fuller, 2018-04-03 A tour de force in the way it embraces and weaves together the political economic and military factors B H Liddell Hart A work which sums up succinctly the learning of a life time New Statesman The Conduct of War 1789 1961 which was originally published in 1961 is a study of the way in which political and economic changes since the French Revolution have altered both the techniques and the aims of war The author begins by studying the limited wars that were possible in the age of absolute rulers and the destructive impact of revolutionary and democratic government on this state of affairs Not only did the new armies of the Napoleonic age grow immensely in size and military power the aims for which the war was fought began to change Now it is no longer a question of forcing the enemy government to change its policy in specific ways the purpose is the destruction of that government and the absolute surrender of its people Such a concept of war the author contends is a disastrous return to barbarism and in this book he considers his study in the light of post war events with Communist countries “The” English Catalogue of Books ,1900 The Dial Francis Fisher Browne,1903 The British Empire Series: British America ,1900 Yale Divinity Quarterly ,1913 Buffalo Bill's British Wild West Alan Gallop,2009-05-29 The story of how William F Cody army scout Indian fighter stagecoach driver and buffalo hunter became an acting sensation with his Wild West show playing to millions of people in America and Europe for over 30 years This account highlights the tours of Victorian and Edwardian Britain Includes details of the many towns and villages visited by Buffalo Bill and how the residents reacted to this incredible spectacular This entertaining account of Buffalo Bill s tours of Britain is richly illustrated with many previously unpublished photographs cartoons and posters Sale American Art Association, Anderson Galleries (Firm),1923 The Conduct of War 1789-1961 J. Australian Books and Authors in the American Marketplace 1840s-1940s David Carter, Roger

Osborne, 2018-07-02 Australian Books and Authors in the American Marketplace 1840s-1940s explores how Australian writers and their works were present in the United States before the mid twentieth century to a much greater degree than previously acknowledged Drawing on fresh archival research and combining the approaches of literary criticism print culture studies and book history David Carter and Roger Osborne demonstrate that Australian writing was transnational long before the contemporary period In mapping Australian literature's connections to British and US markets their research challenges established understandings of national imperial and world literatures Carter and Osborne examine how Australian authors editors and publishers engaged productively with their American counterparts and how American readers and reviewers responded to Australian works They consider the role played by British publishers and agents in taking Australian writing to America and how the international circulation of new literary genres created new opportunities for novelists to move between markets Some of these writers such as Christina Stead and Patrick White remain household names others who once enjoyed international fame such as Dale Collins and Alice Grant Rosman have been largely forgotten The story of their books in America reveals how culture commerce and copyright law interacted to create both opportunities and obstacles for Australian writers
