Out-of-School-Time STEM Programs for Females Lynda R. Wiest, Heather Glynn Crawford, Ferre, Jafeth E. Sanchez, 2021-01-01 Vol II Short Term Programs features eight OST STEM programs for females from across the United States that run one to three days in length in most cases a single day In this book the chapter authors describe their programs the effectiveness of those programs and practical implications of their program evaluation data This book series is the first of its kind to offer researchers educators school administrators policy makers and others detailed insight into the promise and practice of out of school time STEM programs for females Science technology engineering and mathematics STEM disciplines play a pivotal role in societal progress and economic prosperity in addition to enhancing individual lives However U S students lack strong STEM performance in an international context The pool of STEM proficient workers is thus insufficient to fuel the nation with females being one group that is noticeably absent Out of school time OST programs which are on the rise are increasingly suggested as a way to support and encourage underrepresented groups in STEM Participants in OST programs have shown improved achievement interest and confidence in STEM as well as greater awareness of STEM role models and careers The Imperial University Piya Chatterjee, Sunaina Maira, 2014-04-15 At colleges and universities throughout the United States political protest and intellectual dissent are increasingly being met with repressive tactics by administrators politicians and the police from the use of SWAT teams to disperse student protestors and the profiling of Muslim and Arab American students to the denial of tenure and dismissal of politically engaged faculty The Imperial University brings together scholars including some who have been targeted for their open criticism of American foreign policy and settler colonialism to explore the policing of knowledge by explicitly linking the academy to the broader politics of militarism racism nationalism and neoliberalism that define the contemporary imperial state The contributors to this book argue that academic freedom is not a sufficient response to the crisis of intellectual repression Instead they contend that battles fought over academic containment must be understood in light of the academy's relationship to U S expansionism and global capital Based on multidisciplinary research autobiographical accounts and even performance scripts this urgent analysis offers sobering insights into such varied manifestations of the imperial university as CIA recruitment at black and Latino colleges the connections between universities and civilian and military prisons and the gender and sexual politics of academic repression Contributors Thomas Abowd Tufts U Victor Bascara UCLA Dana Collins California State U Fullerton Nicholas De Genova Ricardo Dominguez UC San Diego Sylvanna Falc n UC Santa Cruz Farah Godrej UC Riverside Roberto J Gonzalez San Jose State U Alexis Pauline Gumbs Sharmila Lodhia Santa Clara U Julia C Oparah Mills College Vijay Prashad Trinity College Jasbir Puar Rutgers U Laura Pulido U of Southern California Ana Clarissa Rojas Durazo California State U Long Beach Steven Salaita Virginia Tech Molly Talcott California State U Los Angeles
