CARD #1

The Legislative Branch, or Article I of the U.S. Constitution, is part of the federal government and is the most important law-making body in the country. The power of the federal government is divided between the three branches to have a separation of powers. This means that each branch has a different role and must ensure that the federal government does not become excessively powerful.

CARD #3

The Senate, also known as the "upper house," has 100 members with each state having two Senators. The House of Representatives, also known as the "lower house," has 435 members but the number of representatives per state is based on population.
