Bulletproof Marriage - English Edition Renato & Cristiane Cardoso,2015-01-13 Marriage was God's idea He decided that man and woman should be one flesh Furthermore the Bible says God is love Unfortunately many couples never learned to love each other A feeling passion or some other influence brought them together but they never learned how to study or explore each other or discover what makes them happy When you do not know another person it is impossible to love them because you do not know what pleases or annoys them their dreams and struggles or how they think In such ignorance you will make many mistakes in your relationship and so cause many problems These problems will cause you to withdraw even though you are married and were in love at one time If you have been wondering Do I still love my husband wife Did I marry the wrong person Why is my partner so cold to me Why do we love each other but can't stay together How can I make sure my marriage lasts How can I live with a person who is so difficult Why do our problems go away but then come back worse than before Is my marriage always going to be about hardships or will I find happiness one day Cheer up You will learn how to love intelligently and how to be happy with your spouse even if he or she acts like King Kong Censored 2007 Peter Phillips,Project Censored,2011-01-04 The yearly volumes of Censored in continuous publication since 1976 and since 1995 available through Seven Stories Press is dedicated to the stories that ought to be top features on the nightly news but that are missing because of media bias and self censorship The top stories are listed democratically in order of importance according to students faculty and a national panel of judges Each of the top stories is presented at length alongside updates from the investigative reporters who broke the stories Slaves and Warriors in Medieval Britain and Ireland David R. Wyatt,2009 Modern sensibilities have clouded historical views of slavery perhaps more so than any other medieval social institution Anachronistic economic rationales and notions about the progression of European civilisation have immeasurably distorted our view of slavery in the medieval context As a result historians have focussed their efforts upon explaining the disappearance of this medieval institution rather than seeking to understand it This book highlights the extreme cultural social significance of slavery for the societies of medieval Britain and Ireland c 800 1200 Concentrating upon the lifestyle attitudes and motivations of the slave holders and slave raiders it explores the violent activities and behavioural codes of Britain and Ireland's warrior centred societies illustrating the extreme significance of the institution of slavery for constructions of power ethnic identity and gender Woman and Socialism (English Edition) August Bebel,2014-11-12 Example in this ebook We are living in an age of great social transformations that are steadily progressing In all strata of society we perceive an unsettled state of mind and an increasing restlessness denoting a marked tendency toward profound and radical changes Many questions have arisen and are being discussed with growing interest in ever widening circles One of the most important of these questions and one that is constantly coming into greater prominence is the woman question The woman question deals with the position that woman should hold in our social organism and seeks to determine how she can best develop her powers and her abilities in order to become a useful member of human society endowed with equal rights and serving society according to her best capacity From our point of view this question coincides with that other question In what manner should society be organized to abolish oppression exploitation misery and need and to bring about the physical and mental welfare of individuals and of society as a whole To us then the woman question is only one phase of the general social question that at present occupies all intelligent minds its final solution can only be attained by removing social extremes and the evils which are a result of such extremes Nevertheless the woman question demands our special consideration What the position of woman has been in ancient society what her position is to day and what it will be in the coming social order are questions that deeply concern at least one half of humanity Indeed in Europe they concern a majority of organized society because women constitute a majority of the population Moreover the prevailing conceptions concerning the development of woman s social position during successive stages of history are so faulty that enlightenment on this subject has become a necessity Ignorance concerning the position of woman chiefly accounts for the prejudice that the woman s movement has to contend with among all classes of people by no means least among the women themselves Many even venture to assert that there is no woman question at all since woman s position has always been the same and will remain the same in the future because nature has destined her to be a wife and a mother and to confine her activities to the home Everything that is beyond the four narrow walls of her home and is not closely connected with her domestic duties is not supposed to concern her In the woman question then we find two contending parties just as in the labor question which relates to the position of the workingman in human society Those who wish to maintain everything as it is are quick to relegate woman to her so called natural profession believing that they have thereby settled the whole matter They do not recognize that millions of women are not placed in a position enabling them to fulfill their natural function of wifedom and motherhood owing to reasons that we shall discuss at length later on They furthermore do not recognize that to millions of other women their natural profession is a failure because to them marriage has become a yoke and a condition of slavery and they are obliged to drag on their lives in misery and despair To be continue in this ebook Complete Works, Reprinted

Entire from the Last English Edition Mrs. Hemans,1852 The Koran: ... Translated Into English ... By G. Sale. Fifth Edition, with a Memoir of the Translator by R. A. Davenport , and with Various Readings and Illustrative Notes from Savary's Version of the Koran ,1876 The Comfort Women C. Sarah Soh,2020-05-15 In an era marked by atrocities perpetrated on a grand scale the tragedy of the so called comfort women mostly Korean women forced into prostitution by the Japanese army endures as one of the darkest events of World War II These women have usually been labeled victims of a war crime a simplistic view that makes it easy to pin blame on the policies of imperial Japan and therefore easier to consign the episode to a war torn past In this revelatory study C Sarah Soh provocatively disputes this master narrative Soh reveals that the forces of Japanese colonialism and Korean patriarchy together shaped the fate of

Korean comfort women a double bind made strikingly apparent in the cases of women cast into sexual slavery after fleeing abuse at home Other victims were press ganged into prostitution sometimes with the help of Korean procurers Drawing on historical research and interviews with survivors Soh tells the stories of these women from girlhood through their subjugation and beyond to their efforts to overcome the traumas of their past Finally Soh examines the array of factors from South Korean nationalist politics to the aims of the international women s human rights movement that have contributed to the incomplete view of the tragedy that still dominates today Wwii "Korean Women Not Sex-Enslaved" Kiyoshi Hosoya,Yumiko Yamamoto,2018-07-06 A story of a con artist becomes an international s contended issue involving the US and the issue dangers a diplomatic tie between Japan and South Korea and the security alliances among the US South Korea and Japan involving China and North Korea Readers Readers can understand the issue and why the story becomes internationally diplomatic why the issue is so severe why statues and monuments of comfort women are erected in the US and how the presidents Obama and Trump and their administrations have worked on the issue Target readers President Trump and his administration parliament members professors and teachers of educational institutions judges and such intellectuals and businessmen who deal with Koreans Chinese and Japanese States who may have more interest on this issue California San Francisco and Los Angeles New Jersey Virginia Georgia Illinois Chicago New York Maryland and basically DP states Republicans may wonder why the issue is so popular in San Francisco Los Angeles Chicago and the DP states

Masculinity, Gender and Identity in the English Renaissance Lyric Catherine Bates,2007-12-13 In early modern lyric poetry the male poet or lover often appears not as powerful and masterly but rather as broken abject and feminine Catherine Bates examines the cultural and literary strategies behind this representation and uncovers radically alternative models of masculinity in the lyric tradition of the Renaissance Focusing on Sidney Raleigh Shakespeare and Donne she offers astute readings of a wide range of texts a sonnet sequence a blazon an elegy a complaint and an epistle She shows how existing critical approaches have too much invested in the figure of the authoritative male writer to be able to do justice to the truly radical nature of these alternative masculinities Taking direction from psychoanalytic theories of gender formation Bates develops critical strategies that make it possible to understand and appreciate what is genuinely revolutionary about these texts and about the English Renaissance lyric tradition at large Studies in the Psychology of Sex Havelock

Ellis,2018-09-21 Reproduction of the original Studies in the Psychology of Sex by Havelock Ellis Living with Robots Paul Dumouchel,Luisa Damiano,2017-11-06 From artificial intelligence to artificial empathy a timely and well written volume that addresses many contemporary and future moral questions Library Journal Today s robots engage with human beings in socially meaningful ways as therapists trainers mediators caregivers and companions Social robotics is grounded in artificial intelligence but the field s most probing questions explore the nature of the very real human emotions that social robots are designed to emulate Social roboticists conduct their inquiries out of necessity every robot they design incorporates and tests a number of hypotheses about human relationships Paul Dumouchel and Luisa Damiano show that as roboticists become adept at programming artificial empathy into their creations they are abandoning the conventional conception of human emotions as discrete private internal experiences Rather they are reconceiving emotions as a continuum between two actors who coordinate their affective behavior in real time Rethinking the role of sociability in emotion has also led the field of social robotics to interrogate a number of human ethical assumptions and to formulate a crucial political insight there are simply no universal human characteristics for social robots to emulate What we have instead is a plurality of actors human and nonhuman in noninterchangeable relationships Foreshadowing an inflection point in human evolution Living with Robots shows that for social robots to be effective they must be attentive to human uniqueness and exercise a degree of social autonomy More than mere automatons they must become social actors capable of modifying the rules that govern their interplay with humans A detailed tour of the philosophy of artificial intelligence AI especially as it applies to robots intended to build social relationships with humanity If we are to build a robust appropriate ethical structure around the next generation of technical development some combination of deep learning artificial intelligence robotics and artificial empathy we need to understand that managing the impact of these technologies is far too important to be left to those who are enthusiastically engaged in producing them Times Higher Education

Religion in the English Novel Michael Giffin, 2020-10-23 Romanticism marked a dramatic turning point in philosophy and aesthetics The shift from Classicism to Romanticism to Modernism and its Posts is paralleled in the shift from Kant to Hegel to Nietzsche to Derrida The central notions of the Enlightenment nature progress rationalism and rejection of the irrational are opposed by the central notions of the Counter Enlightenment relativism vitalism anti rationalism and sense of the organic Then there is the idea of freedom at the heart of the West's religious and secular vocabularies The authors discussed in this study ask their readers to consider the question of freedom and constraints upon it For some freedom is found in Christianity for others Christianity is freedom's enemy

21st Century Perspectives on Indian Writing in English Debasish Lahiri, Pradipta Mukherjee, 2022-12-05 The essays gathered here alternately adjust the focal length of the critical lens brought to bear upon texts and contexts in the area of Indian writing in English They bring into view both intense engagements with major voices in this literary scene and the wider socio historical perspectives in which they have thrived Three clearly defined sections on the genres of poetry prose and drama are augmented by three incisive interviews with the diasporic Indian English poet Bashabi Fraser the renowned Indian English fiction writer Kunal Basu and the premier Indian English playwright Mahesh Dattani The volume will appeal to students and teachers of postcolonial and comparative literatures It raises crucial and timely questions about the state of culture in India and the world the crisis of intolerance and the loss of memory and diversity It hones a post millennial perspective on literature written in the late 20th and early 21st centuries

The Passion-Hymns of Hallgrimur in English Dall Wilson, Plutarch in English, 1528-1603. Volume One: Essays Fred Schurink, 2020-12-04 Plutarch was one of the most popular classical authors in Renaissance England These volumes present nine Tudor and Stuart translations from his Essays and Lives with a General Introduction locating these works in the context of Plutarch's wider influence in early modern England They offer selections from two of the classics of English Renaissance translation North's Lives 1579 and Holland's Morals 1603 the essays On Reading the Poets and Talkativeness and the Lives of Demosthenes and Cicero and Caesar They also include editions of a number of less well known but equally significant translations of individual Essays and Lives one available in manuscript alone until now and several not reprinted since the sixteenth century Thomas Wyatt's The Quiet of Mind 1528 Thomas Elyot's The Education or Bringing up of Children 1528-30 Thomas Blundeville's The Learned Prince 1561 and Henry Parker Lord Morley's The Story of Paullus Aemilius 1542-46-7 Detailed annotations trace how translators drew on and departed from Greek Latin and French editions of Plutarch while introductions to each of the works examine their impact on English Renaissance literature and culture By presenting a wide range of translations from the Essays and Lives the volumes bring to light the variety of translation practices and the different social political and cultural contexts in which Plutarch was read and translated in Tudor and Stuart England

Remapping the Mediterranean World in Early Modern English

Writings G. Stanivukovic, 2007-01-08 The essays in this volume explore the Mediterranean both as a physical and cultural space and as a conceptual notion that challenges the boundaries between East and West It emphasizes the Ottoman Mediterranean by exploring a variety of literary and non literary texts produced between the Sixteenth and Eighteenth centuries

Emotional Histories in the Fight to End Prostitution Michele Renée Greer, 2022-10-06 This book sheds new light on the ongoing fight to end prostitution through a historical study of its emotional communities An issue that has long been the subject of much debate amongst feminists governments and communities alike the history of the fight to end prostitution has an important bearing on feminist politics today This book identifies key abolitionist emotional communities tracing their origins interactions and evolutions with various historical and contemporary emotional styles In doing so Emotional Histories in the Fight to End Prostitution highlights a more nuanced view of the movement's history From Moral Liberals in 19th century Britain to the American anti pornography movement and Swedish Nordic Model Emotional Histories in the Fight to End Prostitution shows how emotional styles and practices have influenced the evolution of the fight against prostitution in Britain the United States and Western Europe From the fear of sin to maternal compassion and survivor shame and loss

Michele Greer historicizes emotions and studies them as dynamic forms of situated knowledge. In doing so she sheds light on how women's lived experiences have been transformed and politicized and raises important questions around how feminist emotions in social protest can not only challenge but unknowingly defend existing socio-political conventions and inequalities. Highlighting the links between past and present forms of abolitionism it shows that this connection is more complex and far reaching than currently assumed and offers new perspectives on the history of emotions. The Newer, More English Version Tom Carver, 2013-05-31 In the beginning was the word and you know the rest. Not like this you don't. In a new twist on a classic tale Tom Carver reimagines the Old Testament without the leading character. The Newer More English Version takes an erudite look at the supporting players of the Pentateuch with no Jehovah to steal the show. What's left is a varied cast of egomaniacs, revolutionaries, war criminals, geniuses and perverts. Joseph: smug careerist and part-time psychoanalyst. Moses: a revolutionary firebrand who just wants to belong. Abraham: the world's first and greatest global branding strategist and one very strange tree. Patriot Mashumaro Jyuubaori, 2008-08
