The Grammar of School Discipline Hannah Carson Baggett, Carey E. Andrzejewski, 2021-05-18 The Grammar of School Discipline examines how seemingly discrete school discipline policies and practices constitute a particular grammar Removal Resistance and Reform Weaving numeric data with portraits of students and school practitioners the authors detail a nuanced landscape of school discipline in Alabama and its anti Black foundations The removal of Black students can be traced to the antebellum construction of Blackness as criminal deviant and deserving of punishment A focus on resistance centers the agency that students and practitioners exercise despite anti Black removal An exploration of specific reform efforts emphasizes that even the most well intentioned and well organized reforms are limited

when the removal of students remains an option for practitioners The authors end with an appeal to educational stakeholders to repair the harms that these anti Black policies and practices inflict on students and communities and thus move towards repairing the damage that white supremacy inflicts on everyone s humanity

Credit Rating Governance Ahmed Naciri,2015-01-30 Credit rating agencies play an essential role in the modern financial system and are relied on by creditors and investors on the market In the recent financial crisis their power and reliability were often questioned yet a simple rating downgrade could threaten to bankrupt a whole country This book examines the governance of credit rating agencies as expressed by their ability to fairly ethically and consistently assign higher rates to issuers having lesser default risks However factors such as the drive for increased revenue and market share the inadequate business model the inadequate methodology of assessing risk opacity and inadequate internal monitoring have all been identified as critical governance failures for credit agencies This book explores these issues and proposes some potential solutions and improvements This will be of interest to researchers and advanced students of corporate finance finance financial economics risk management investment management and banking
