Robert Hugh Benson, 2016-10-07 In or about the year 2000 humanity has reached that incredibly lofty goal to which its intrinsic efforts can carry it but rejected everything but crass materialism Technology has advanced to the point where no one need work for a living while the social sciences have achieved a smoothly running if almost unbearably sterile social order Formal religious beliefs except for Catholicism have been uprooted and eliminated as coherent systems and the Catholic Church has been completely discredited in the eyes of the world finally being outlawed The result is everything the late Victorians and Edwardians believed would bring human happiness and which brings nothing but the advent of new superstitions despair and the end of the world maybe Hugh. the Anti Christ and the End of the World It has been called prophetic by Dale Ahlquist Joseph Pearce Pope Benedict XVI and Pope Francis Robert Hugh Benson 1871 1914 was the youngest son of Edward White Benson Archbishop of Canterbury and younger brother of Edward Frederic Benson In 1895 he was ordained a priest in the Church of England by his father who was then Archbishop of Canterbury After many years of questioning and soul searching he was received into the Roman Catholic Church in 1903 He was ordained a Catholic priest in 1904 and named a Monsignor in 1911 This book written in 1907 is Benson's dystopic vision of a near future world in which religion has by and large been rejected or simply fallen by the wayside The Catholic Church has retreated to Italy and Ireland while the majority of the rest of the world is either Humanistic or Pantheistic There is a one world government and euthanasia is widely available The plot follows the tale of a priest Percy Franklin who becomes Pope Silvester III and a mysterious man named Julian Felsenburgh who is identical in looks to the priest and who becomes Lord of the World The one condition of progress on the planet that happened to be men s dwelling place was peace not the sword which Christ brought or that which Mahomet wielded but peace that arose from not passed understanding the peace that sprang from a knowledge that man was all and was able to develop himself only by sympathy with his fellows Dawn of All Robert Hugh Benson, Aeterna Press, 2004 Gradually memory and consciousness once more reasserted themselves and he became aware that he was lying in bed But this was a slow process of intense mental effort and was as laboriously and logically built up of premises and deductions as were his theological theses learned twenty years before in his seminary There was the sheet below his chin there was a red coverlet seen at first as a blood coloured landscape of hills and valleys there was a ceiling overhead at first as remote as the vault of heaven Then little by little the confused roaring in his ears sank to a murmur It had been just now as the sound of brazen hammers clanging in reverberating caves the rolling of wheels the tramp of countless myriads of men Aeterna Press The Life of Monsignor Robert Hugh Benson ...
