with Babies, Toddlers and Twos Susan Straub, KJ Dell'Antonia, 2013-05-07 It's never too early or too late to start sharing books with your baby. Reading is one of the first activities you can enjoy with your child, and Reading with Babies, Toddlers and Twos gets you started. Instill a love for reading early by answering questions such as Which books will a newborn baby enjoy? What do you buy after you've read Goodnight Moon? Are eBooks and apps appropriate for young children? Can I make up a story to tell my child? What are the best collections of fairy tales, fables, and other classic stories? A parenting resource to help with early learning and literacy. Straub, Dell'Antonia, and Payne use their decades of experience as parents, book reviewers, and children's librarians to bring you the very best in children's books so you'll never run out of ideas for reading with your baby. An accessible and enjoyable guide, this book is a go-to resource. A Celebration of Literature and Response Marjorie R. Hancock, 2004 Reinforced by teachers' experiences in actual classrooms, this book provides a wealth of ideas for projects, readings, and response-based activities that will engage all learners in the joy of reading and responding to literature. It blends an appreciation of children's books across all genres with an emphasis on meaningful instructional strategies for literacy programs. Coverage of multicultural international literature helps illustrate the universality of themes in children's literature, providing a basis for establishing a library of literature that expresses the totality of children's experiences and speaks to children from all cultures and backgrounds. Coverage is based on Louise Rosenblatt's transactional theory of reader response and organized around five main celebrations that the author uses as a framework for uniting the findings of reader response theory with quality children's literature and exemplary
