Eastern Approaches Fitzroy Maclean, 2015-05-07 Fitzroy Maclean was one of the real life inspirations for super spy James Bond. After adventures in Soviet Russia before the war, Maclean fought with the SAS in North Africa in 1942. There he specialised in hair-raising commando raids behind enemy lines, including the daring and outrageous kidnapping of the German Consul in Axis-controlled Iraq. Maclean's extraordinary adventures in the Western Desert and later fighting alongside Tito's partisans in Yugoslavia are blistering reading and show what it took to be a British hero who broke the mould.

Tracks and Shadows Harry W. Greene, 2016-08-16 Intellectually rich, intensely personal and beautifully written, Tracks and Shadows is both an absorbing autobiography of a celebrated field biologist and a celebration of beauty in nature. Harry W. Greene, award-winning author of Snakes: The Evolution of Mystery in Nature, delves into the poetry of field biology, showing how nature eases our existential quandaries. More than a memoir, the book is about the wonder of snakes, the beauty of studying and understanding natural history, and the importance of sharing the love of nature with humanity. Greene begins with his youthful curiosity about the natural world and moves to his stints as a mortician's assistant, ambulance driver, and army medic. In detailing his academic career, he describes how his work led him to believe that nature's most profound lessons lurk in hard-won details. He discusses the nuts and bolts of field research and teaching, contrasts the emotional impact of hot, dry habitats with hot, wet ones, imparts the basics of snake biology, and introduces the great explorers, Charles Darwin and Alfred Russel Wallace. He reflects on friendship and happiness, tackles notions like anthropomorphism and wilderness, and argues that organisms remain the core of biology. Science plays key roles in conservation and natural history, offering an enlightened form of contentment.

Burning Shadows Jennifer Anne Davis, 2017-12-06 The Order of the Krigers has risen. Determined to destroy the Order, the vicious king Morlet scourges the land, searching for the Krigers. He burns entire villages, hoping to flush out the twelve chosen ones. He has other plans for Kaia. In order to end the curse, Kaia must conceive a child before the Krigers can kill Morlet. However, she doesn't know if the father is supposed to be her fiancé Vidar or his brother, the evil king. In order to find the answer, she journeys to the other side of the mountains, stifling her growing feelings for the assassin. Kaia unearths secrets that force her to reevaluate her cause. Can she sacrifice so much of herself to save the kingdom of Nelebek? Can she kill Morlet when she is starting to understand and even sympathize with him? And is there really any choice at all, especially when it comes to matters of the heart? Kaia learns each choice comes with a price: passion can rival hatred, and an evil looms on the horizon, more sinister than she ever imagined.
