Sometimes a grave is not for bodies It can be for the soul The tomb of our fate That forbidding fateful soul contract For most of my life I have had weighty concerns fears of living in madness addiction love I either had too much or not enough of all three I d hear I love you then be beaten within a second for my next breath I was on pins and needles constantly Survival became a daily prayer By 13 I was on booze by 36 I was on my knees begging to a higher power to help me end it all The day is Oct 7th 1991 I have no idea how that prayer is going to be answered I am about to find out what real madness is learn about addiction and find love through letting go and finally in death You are about to take a wild journey with me Hang on you will laugh out loud hold your breath allow tears to flow You will come to know that no matter what life throws at us we are all whole holy Textile World Walter S.
