One Barrel At A Time Jack Carmichael, 2013-08 In April

2005 two days after my 76th birthday I became the Protestant Chaplain at California Correctional Center in Susanville California The warden hired me for the job of creating a Faith Based Rehabilitation Program taught by inmates supported by unpaid Outside Volunteers It was anticipated that it could be a rehabilitation program for the twenty six State Prisons in California as well a challenge for the myriad jails and prisons throughout the United States To overcome the warehousing model of incarcerating and housing inmate in prisons throughout most prison systems it is imperative that inexpensive programs be developed to counteract the chilling effect of sparse and ineffective free time support for the inmate population California recidivism rates in state prisons exceed 80% It is expected that is much the same across the United States Something needs to be done to counteract this and the CCC model is one attempt to do it Included in this book are anecdotal examples and testimonies which point to this possibility The challenges or barrels related in this attempt to change the recidivism rate at one institution tell us it won't be easy New ideas are hard to come by in prison the old and tried and failed to often have the upper hand As you follow my story you will see how and who are the advocates and foes of change in the way prisons are operated The story told here can benefit the families of the more than 1 000 000 inmates in the prisons and jails in America It can provide insights into the prison life for the students in the Correctional Curriculums in the colleges and universities of America If the book were read by the personnel in the Administration of State Prisons they might be challenged to work to change the climate in their jails and prisons Whether any of the above read it isn't as important as if you read it Read it

The Odyssey of Winnie Our Two-Year Adventure Owning An RV Michael Meyer, 2022-09-20 This

The Sales Multiplier Formula Shawn Casemore, 2024-12-30 What do companies such as Northwestern Mutual Life Hilton and Nokia have in common They approach selling differently than any of their competitors Sales is not a transaction executed by the sales department it's a process that all employees support The result The sale value for each new customer is most often double triple or even quadruple what their closest competitors achieve This book dives deeply into the exact formula for how you can achieve similar if not even greater results Consider this your guide to shifting your organization from transactional selling to embracing a sales method that will explode your sales revenue and engage your entire organization in doing so The reason for embracing this method extends beyond achieving explosive sales growth The author has coached thousands of sales professionals over the years and one challenge they face stands out more than any other It s that selling is becoming increasingly difficult Why do you think there are over one million sales related vacancies in the United States at this very moment according to the US Bureau of Labor Statistics Prospects are more challenging to reach than ever work from home schedules anti spam legislation and policies that restrict visitors are making it increasingly difficult for your sales team to do what you want them to do sell Worse yet when they do make a sale it s as if they are burdening the rest of the organization Complaints about unachievable delivery dates unacceptable terms or insufficient profit all result in a clear divide between sales and everyone else The result A slow erosion of your sales and an increased likelihood that your sales team will soon be searching for a different career It s been this way for a while now and it will continue to be unless you adopt what the author shares in this book Reality Tour Cheryl Crouch,G Studios,2009-10-06
