Ms. Grace Smith
Admissions Officer
Rid University
3418 Oak Drive
Albany, NY 12207

Dear Ms. Smith,

I am writing to express my sincere interest in attending Rid University as a prospective student for the upcoming academic year. After researching various institutions, I have found that Rid University aligns perfectly with my academic goals, personal interests, and career aspirations.

Having an unparalleled passion for computer programming, I was immediately drawn to the comprehensive curriculum of your Computer Science program and the acclaimed faculty members who would undoubtedly offer enriching guidance and mentoring as I deepened my understanding and honed my skills in this field.

I am genuinely confident that with the academic rigor, the plethora of extracurricular activities, and the multicultural community that your university is known for, I can contribute significantly to promoting diversity and academic discourse and fostering an environment of intellectual curiosity.

Please feel free to contact me at 222 555 777 or [Your Email] if you require any further information or clarification regarding my application. I am eager to further discuss my qualifications and aspirations during an interview or through any additional materials that you may require.

Sincerely,

The Complete Book of Colleges, 2018 Edition Princeton Review, 2017-07. Includes information on admissions cost, financial aid required, and recommended admissions criteria, cost breakdowns, and types of financial aid for 1,355 colleges and universities. Local Justice in America Jon Elster, 1995-11-16. Notions of justice and fairness are central to the American belief that the pursuit of a healthy and productive life is the right of all citizens. Yet in the real world, there are seldom sufficient resources to meet the needs of everyone, and institutions are routinely forced to make difficult decisions regarding who will be favored and who will not. Local Justice in America is an insightful look into how selections are made in four critical areas: college admissions, kidney transplants, employee layoffs, and legalized immigration. This volume's case studies survey the history and modern rationale behind seemingly enigmatic allocation systems, chronicling the political and ethical debates, occasional scandals, and judicial battles that have shaped them. Though these selection processes differ significantly, each reflects a bitter struggle between opposing and equally intense principles of local justice. For example, are admissions officers who use special points to foster student diversity less fair than those who rely exclusively on scholastic achievement? How did the system of personal discretion among doctors selecting transplant patients come to be viewed by the public as more inequitable than compassionate? Does the use of seniority as a gauge in layoffs violate equal opportunity laws or provide employers with their only objective and neutral criterion? How have partisan interest groups repeatedly shifted immigration quotas between the extremes of xenophobia and altruism In framing chapters editor Jon Elster draws upon these studies to speculate on the unique nature of the American value system Arguing that race matters deeply in all considerations of local justice he discusses how our society's assessment of neediness balances on the often uneasy compromises between the desire to reward deserving individuals and the call to strengthen opportunities for disadvantaged groups Well informed and stimulating Local Justice in America speaks directly to policy debates in the fields of health education work and immigration and makes an important contribution to our understanding of the fundamental social issues that affect our daily welfare
