Smallholders and family farms in Albania - Country study report 2019 Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations ,2020-06-01 The background for conducting country studies on the challenges needs and constraints of smallholders and family farms in seven countries has been a wish to further strengthen the Regional Initiative and develop the initiative towards a stronger programmatic approach at both the regional and country levels To provide support to smallholders and family farms there has been a need to develop a better understanding and knowledge platform of the main challenges needs and constraints of smallholders and family farms in the specific country context Even though many of the challenges are the same throughout the region there are still significant variations among the countries it is important to recognize and understand these variations when designing support to smallholders and family farms in each specific country It has been the objectives of the country studies first to analyze the development trend and current state of smallholders and family farms in the specific country second to study the current political priorities and policies affecting smallholders and family farms and finally based on the conclusions made to provide recommendations mainly at the policy level on how to further support the development of commercial family farms and at the same time ensure in general inclusive growth improved rural livelihood for women and men and the reduction of rural poverty for all It is hoped that each country study will not only be relevant for FAO but also for governments donors and other international organizations when formulating policy and preparing programmes

A Universal Template for Research Position and Life Experience Papers Dale Benjamin

Drakeford,2005 The self descriptive title A Universal Template For Research Position and Life Experience Papers implies that there is a position that writers take in even the simplest of essays As such Template provides an opportunity to accomplish two tasks at once consider the definitive differences between Research Position and Experience papers and explore the issues that impound and empower contemporary urban education Dale Benjamin Drakeford provides an interactive workshop to guide student writing on any social science subject Agreeing with many scholars that public and free pedagogy is indispensable the author also argues that there is no wrong or right in scholastic debate only correct presentation of objective thoughts or non objective attitudes This the author says is what is sometimes forgotten in the heat of getting ideas on paper Hence Template provides structure for planning papers and in process cues for staying on task to complete them with proper formality

Smith,Georges Steffgen,2013-12-04 Cyberbullying is one of the darker and more troubling aspects to the growing accessibility of new media technologies Children in developed countries engage with cyberspace at younger and younger ages and the use of the internet as a means to bully and harass has been greeted with alarm by educationalists parents the media and governments This important new book is the result of a four year international collaboration funded by the EU to better understand how we can cope and confront cyberbullying and how new media technologies can be used to actually support the victims of such abuse The articles initially define the historical and theoretical context to cyberbullying before examining key issues involved in managing this pervasive phenomenon Coverage includes The definition and measurement of cyberbullying The legal challenges in tackling cyberbullying across a number of international contexts The role of mobile phone companies and Internet service providers in monitoring and prevention How the media frame and present the issue and how that influences our understanding How victims can cope with the effects of cyberbullying and the guidelines and advice provided in different countries How cyber bullying can continue from school into further education and the strategies that can be used to prevent it The ways in which accessing youth voice or maximising the contribution of young people themselves to the research process can enhance our understanding The book concludes with practical guidance to help confront the trauma that cyberbullying can cause It will be a valuable resource for researchers students policy makers and administrators with an interest in how children and young people are rendered vulnerable to bullying and harassment through a variety of online channels

The Politicisation of Migration Wouter van der Brug, Gianni D'Amato, Didier Ruedin, Joost Berkhout, 2015-03-27 Why are migration policies sometimes heavily contested and high on the political agenda And why do they at other moments and in other countries hardly lead to much public debate The entrance and settlement of migrants in Western Europe has prompted various political reactions In some countries anti immigration parties have gained substantial public support while in others migration policies have been hardly controversial The Politicisation of Migration examines the differences between seven Western European countries by developing a conceptual framework to empirically explain patterns of politicisation and de politicisation The analyses show that over the past decade immigration has been increasingly defined in socio cultural terms and that it has been receiving less political attention since the economic crisis started in 2007 This book also looks at the role of mainstream parties and political actors in the process of politicisation and demonstrates how the role of challengers is more limited than often assumed Contributing to literatures on migration party politics and agenda setting the book will be of interest to students and scholars in the fields of politics and migration studies

West Country Households, 1500-1700 John Allan, Nathaniel Warren Alcock, David Dawson, 2015 Essays on the development of the post medieval house its contents and decoration During the last forty years South West England has been the focus of some of the most significant work on the early modern house and household in Britain Its remarkable wealth of vernacular buildings has been the object of much attention while the area has also seen productive excavations of early modern household goods shedding new light on domestic history This collection of papers written by many of the leading specialists in these fields presents a number of essays summarizing the overall understanding of particular themes and places alongside case studies which publish some of the most remarkable discoveries They include the extraordinary survival of wall hangings in a South Devon farm the discovery of painted rooms in an Elizabethan town house and a study of a table setting mirrored on its ceiling Also considered are forms of decoration which seem specific to particular areas of the West Country houses Taken together the papers offer a holistic view of the household in the early modern period John Allan is Consultant Archaeologist to the Dean Nat Alcock is Emeritus Reader in the Department of Chemistry University of Warwick
