Benuto, 2012-09-19 This book focuses on diversity culture and ethnicity as they relate to psychological assessment of Hispanics It is a how to guide for clinicians researchers and instructors working with Hispanic clients Each chapter contains an overview of cultural considerations needed for assessing the Hispanic client followed by a specific exploration of the assessment measures available and the research that has been conducted on these measures with Hispanic participants An exploration of the strengths and limitations of each assessment measure is included Considering that ethnocultural minority individuals who are of Hispanic Latino origin make up the largest ethnocultural minority group in the United States guidelines for working with this population are a must Given that a large subset of this percentage is composed of immigrants many of whom do not speak English or who have learned English as a second language special considerations for effective psychological assessment are necessary This book fills a gap in the scientific literature by consolidating the research on psychological assessment with Hispanic samples into one comprehensive volume and providing simple recommendations for the psychological assessment of Hispanic clients An exploration of the general psychological assessment domains e g personality intelligence is included with references to research on the major assessment measures used in the field A more specific exploration of psychodiagnostic assessment measures follows including the assessment of mood disorders anxiety disorders sexual dysfunction psychosis etc Several chapters are dedicated to specialized assessment including neuropsychological assessment forensic assessment and school based assessment overall creating the most comprehensive up to date research based compendium of psychological assessment measures for use with Hispanic clients Assessment of Young Children Lisa B. Fiore,2020-12-29 In an era where assessment mandates tend to minimize or dismiss individual differences and creativity resulting in punitive outcomes or inertia this essential guide provides teachers with a collaborative approach to assessment that emphasizes the importance of bringing children and families into the process Now in its second edition Assessment of Young Children explores both standardized and authentic assessment work sampling systems and observation skills Fully updated with current standards and research this new edition also features an enhanced focus on trauma informed practices culturally and linguistically diverse learners and family involvement Lively and engaging chapters help readers cultivate developmentally appropriate practice create appropriate expectations examine and celebrate children s work interact in groups and improve their reflective teaching Accounts of real experiences from children families teachers and administrators provide on the ground models of assessment strategies and demonstrate how children are affected Exploring a variety of ways to observe and assess young children in their natural environments this critical volume encourages an assessment strategy where the child remains the focus and collaboration with children families and colleagues creates an image not a diagnosis of the child that is empowering rather than constraining Host-microbe interaction in SARS-CoV-2 infection: Mechanism and intervention Tengchuan Jin,Ron Geller,Penghua Wang,2023-05-12 A Sense of Belonging Jennifer Allen,2023-10-10 Too often new teachers enter the profession excited to make a difference in the lives of children only to find themselves disillusioned and overwhelmed with the expectations of the classroom In A Sense of Belonging Jennifer Allen shares her stories and journey in creating an infrastructure of support for new teachers within her school district A Sense of Belonging provides research based practical ideas on how to support new teachers while honoring the innovation idealism and optimistic enthusiasm that they bring to the classroom From supporting new teachers early in the year with administering and analyzing literacy assessments through using student work to guide instruction to offering ongoing help with curriculum planning Jennifer shares strategies on fostering relationships with new teachers starting before school even begins creating learning environments for new teachers to be reflective practitioners coaching new teachers in their classrooms and providing opportunities for them to observe their peers in action supporting new teachers beyond their first year through gradual release of support over their first several years in the classroom and facilitating professional development opportunities where new and veteran teachers learn alongside one another Jennifer believes and her book demonstrates that when schools embrace encourage and celebrate the work of new teachers they establish a supportive environment that fosters excellence and improves retention Resources in Education ,2000 Assessment of Children's Intelligence and Special Abilities Jerome M. Sattler,1982 Making Space for Active Learning Anne C. Martin,Ellen Schwartz,2015-04-28 This powerful collection will inspire new and veteran teachers to make space for children's interests for teaching as relational and intellectual work and for new insights and ideas. The authors introduce the Prospect Center's Descriptive Review of Practice, a collaborative inquiry process that provides an opportunity for teachers to examine their practice and gain new perspectives from other participants. The contributors to this volume respond to each child's modes of thinking as they develop curriculum or find wiggle room in curricula they are given. By demonstrating how it is possible to pursue careful knowledge of craft, this book offers ways of teaching that allow for continuing growth and change. Book Features: An inquiry methodology that assists teachers to reflect on the classroom and develop curriculum that responds to children's interests and needs. Specific examples of a variety of sources teachers can draw on and think about to improve practice. A method of data collection that can inform practice while allowing for the unevenness, messiness, and essential humanness of teaching and learning. Making Space for Active Learning is a collection that stands alone and gets to the heart of what we mean by learning and teaching. Each contribution reminded me of how much I miss being in the classroom and how much we're missing in current, so-called school reform discourse. Keep this book handy. A chapter at a time will restore some needed sanity about what's important. Deborah Meier, author and education activist. This book is a moving and powerful collection of teachers' work that holds the possibility of inspiring and changing new teachers' practice. Kathy Schultz Dean, Professor, School of Education, Mills College. This book will add significantly to the expanding and important literature about The Prospect Processes, which were developed over many years at the Prospect School and Center in Vermont. The chapters, all by experienced educators, profit from the back and forth between inquiry and stories of classroom life, each informing the other. Brenda S. Engel, associate professor, retired, Lesley University. 30 Big-Idea Lessons for Small Groups Michael Rafferty, Colleen Morello, Paraskevi Rountos, 2016-04-13. 30 Big Idea Lessons for Small Groups provides an amazing framework with a bank of engagement tools that gets students interacting with texts. Follow this unique 4-part process to develop students' literal, inferential, evaluative, and analytical skills. Engage Before Reading: Students use a tactile tool like a topic card or a pyramid. Discuss During Reading: Students read and mark up a short text. Deep See Think After Reading: Students re-read and revise their interpretations together. Connect After Reading: Students begin to transfer their understandings to other texts. Method Validation in Pharmaceutical Analysis Joachim Ermer, Phil W. Nethercote, 2014-08-27. This second edition of a global bestseller has been completely redesigned and extensively rewritten to take into account the new Quality by Design (QbD) and lifecycle concepts in pharmaceutical manufacturing. As in the first edition, the fundamental requirements for analytical method validation are covered, but the second edition describes how these are applied systematically throughout the entire analytical lifecycle. QbD principles require adoption of a systematic approach to development and validation that begin with predefined objectives. For analytical methods, these predefined objectives are established as an Analytical Target Profile (ATP). The book chapters are aligned with recently introduced standards and guidelines for manufacturing processes validation and follow the three stages of the analytical lifecycle Method Design Method Performance Qualification and Continued Method Performance Verification Case studies and examples from the pharmaceutical industry illustrate the concepts and guidelines presented and the standards and regulations from the US FDA European EMA and global ICH regulatory authorities are considered throughout The undisputed gold standard in the field
