A Pastor's Toolbox Paul A. Holmes, 2014-01-28 Today's parish leaders are expected to be holy and prayerful spiritual guides great preachers and compassionate confessors but also to make important decisions in key areas like finance budgeting hiring and firing fundraising risk management relationship building and more often with virtually no transition or training And with all the requisite education in philosophy and theology they must provide future pastors in addition to formation in priestly spirituality and pastoral care seminaries can do little to prepare priests to deal with the difficult temporal issues pastors face A Pastor's Toolbox is designed to help fill that void with valuable information insights and practical tools that pastors need in order to begin handling the complexities of parish management in the twenty first century It candidly addresses questions like What do you need to know about hiring evaluating coaching and inspiring members of your parish team Which budgeting and financial analysis competencies are key to running a strong fiscal house Why is working seamlessly with laity so important to your long term success How do you manage the new skills essential to fundraising What steps should your parish take to protect its assets How do you deploy best practices to operate a parish effectively Each chapter is written by experts both clergy and lay with years of experience and leadership in their respective fields Pastors in Transition Dean R. Hoge, Jacqueline E. Wenger, 2005-05-02 Whether they leave out of preference for another ministry or due to serious conflict pastors who relinquish parish ministry face misunderstanding and even hostility Pastors in Transition brings clarity to this little examined aspect of the pastorate by examining the main reasons why pastors in five Protestant denominations have left parish ministry The fruit of careful sociological research Pastors in Transition presents the findings of the largest ever study of recently ended ministries More than 900 ex ministers representing the Assemblies of God the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America the Lutheran Church Missouri Synod the Presbyterian

Church USA and the United Methodist Church were surveyed or interviewed Besides gathering facts and figures the book contains personal stories forthright opinions and concrete recommendations from former pastors for strengthening parish ministry in the future

Choosing a New Pastor Henry Virkler, 2006-04-26 How do we find and contact pastoral candidates What background information do we need to know about pastoral candidates What do we need to consider when developing a salary and benefit package for a new pastor Each year several thousand churches face questions like these as they search for new pastors To help make the process easier to help avoid costly mistakes Dr Henry Virkler has organized a comprehensive step by step plan to guide search committees through the intricacies of selection procedures in Choosing a New Pastor Dr Virkler employs a transdenominational approach as he identifies twenty one mistakes that pastor nominating committees make and suggests alternative steps to take steers churches through the phases of transition from saying good bye to the old pastor to orienting the new one proposes guidelines for conflict resolution when pastor and congregation disagree plus it includes sample information forms interview forms and letters This complete guide to pastoral selection will successfully guide you through the process both efficiently and effectively

The Pastor's Note John L. Spurgeon, 2017-03-06 Throughout the gospel we find how Christ used parables to describe our personal relationship with God He took the tangible things of life as example to illustrate a spiritual life in Christ The devotional before you has one hundred devotions many based on parables of my life and stories I recall Why one hundred One hundred represents fullness and a completion as well as principle of return My first hope is that your reading this will not only help you to recognize that everything is spiritual but also give you an opportunity to know and experience more of Gods presence Second my hope is that completing this devotion wont mark an end or accomplishment but that you will be spiritually primed to pursue greater depths in an intimate relationship with our Savior And last with the principle of return I pray that you will continue to grow and be further profitable to Gods kingdom and purpose taking what God gives in abundance and pouring it over into the lives of others
