Mr. Ockey, was born in Austin, Texas, in 1949 and has been a resident of Southern California for 48 years. He graduated with a Bachelors of Science Degree in Mechanical Engineering from California State University Northridge, C.S.U.N., in 1971, and joined the Los Angeles Police Department in 1971.

As a member of the Los Angeles Police Department Mr. Ockey had specialized training and extensive experience in on scene investigation of traffic collisions. As a member of a Bureau wide accident follow up unit, he has worked as a traffic report auditor, responsible for correcting other officers' reports and for the continual training of officers working in the field of accident investigation. He was also part of a cadre of officers assigned the task of re-writing the Traffic Manual of the Los Angeles Police Department in 1980. Mr. Ockey attended Northwestern University, Traffic Institute's, courses in Technical Accident Investigation and Accident Reconstruction, in 1983 and 1992.

Due to his Engineering background and specialized training, Mr. Ockey was selected as one of the team leaders for the Specialized Collision Investigation Detail (SCID) of the Los Angeles Police Department. This team was responsible for accident reconstruction for incidents occurring in the Valley Bureau of the L.A.P.D..

In 1986, Mr. Ockey was promoted to Detective and worked in the capacity of an Area Homicide Investigator, obtaining a unique insight into the workings of complex criminal cases. In 1989 Mr. Ockey returned to the Traffic Accident Investigation field as a Detective Supervisor, responsible for investigation of traffic related crimes ranging from simple hit and runs to Felony DUI and vehicular homicides. He has supervised the work of other officers involved in report auditing, accident investigation follow up work and accident reconstruction for three years.

Mr. Ockey has worked on the preparation of hundreds of traffic related matters for criminal prosecution. Many of these cases have involved use of accident reconstruction techniques to prove elements of the criminal conduct. Mr. Ockey has testified on approximately 65 cases in Municipal and Superior Courts in Los Angeles, Ventura, Kern and Orange Counties, where he has qualified as an expert in the fields of Traffic Accident Investigation and Accident Reconstruction. He has consulted on approximately 500 civil litigation matters since 1985.

Walther,2006-12-08 IWilliam Lowndes Yancey 1814 63 was one of the leading secessionists of the Old South In this first comprehensive biography Eric H Walther examines the personality and political life of the uncompromising fire eater Born in Georgia but raised in the North by a fiercely abolitionist stepfather and an emotionally unstable mother Yancey grew up believing that abolitionists were cruel meddling and hypocritical His personal journey led him through a series of mentors who transformed his political views and upon moving to frontier Alabama in his twenties Yancey s penchant for rhetorical and physical violence was soon channeled into a crusade to protect slaveholders rights Yancey defied Northern Democrats at their national nominating convention in 1860 rending the party and setting the stage for secession after the election of Abraham Lincoln Selected to introduce Jefferson Davis in Montgomery as the president elect of the Confederacy Yancey also served the Confederacy as a diplomat and a senator before his death in 1863 just short of his forty ninth birthday More than a portrait of an influential political figure before and during the Civil War this study also presents a nuanced look at the roots of Southern honor violence and understandings of manhood as they developed in the nineteenth century

Intimate Memory Martin W. Huang,2018-03-01 In the first study of its kind about the role played by intimate memory in the mourning literature of late imperial China Martin W Huang focuses on the question of how men mourned and wrote about women to whom they were closely related Drawing upon memoirs epitaphs biographies litanies and elegiac poems Huang explores issues such as how intimacy shaped the ways in which bereaved male authors conceived of womanhood and how such conceptualizations were inevitably also acts of self reflection about themselves as men Their memorial writings reveal complicated self images as husbands brothers sons and educated Confucian males while their representations of women are much more complex and diverse than the representations we find in more public genres such as Confucian female exemplar biographies

Bibliography of the History of Medicine , Street Photography Clive Scott,2020-09-14 Street photography is perhaps the best loved and most widely known of all photographic genres with names like Cartier Bresson Brassai and Doisneau familiar even to those with a fleeting knowledge of the medium Yet what exactly is street photography From what viewpoint does it present its subjects and how does this viewpoint differ from that of documentary photography Looking closely at the work of Atget Kertesz Bovis Rene Jacques Brassai Doisneau Cartier Bresson and more this elegantly written book extensively illustrated with both well known and neglected works unpicks Parisian street photography s affinity with Impressionist art as well as its complex relationship with parallel literary trends and authors from Baudelaire to Philippe Soupault Clive Scott traces street photography s origins asking what really what happened to photography when it first abandoned the studio and brings to the fore fascinating questions about the way the street photographer captures or frames those subjects traders lovers entertainers so beloved of the genre In doing so Scott reveals street photography to be a poetic even picturesque form looking not to the individual but to the type not to the reality of the street but to its romance

The Mother's Legacy in Early Modern England Ms Jennifer Heller,2013-05-28 Using printed and manuscript texts composed between 1575 and 1672 Jennifer Heller defines the genre of the mother s legacy as a distinct branch of the advice tradition in early modern England that takes the form of a dying mother's pious counsel to her children. Reading these texts in light of specific cultural contexts, social trends, and historical events, Heller explores how legacy writers used the genre to secure personal and family status, to shape their children's beliefs and behaviors, and to intervene in the period's tumultuous religious and political debates. The author's attention to the fine details of the period's religious and political swings, drawn from sources such as royal proclamations, sermons, and first-hand accounts of book burnings, creates a fuller context for her analysis of the legacies. Similarly, Heller explains the appeal of the genre by connecting it to social factors, including mortality rates and inheritance practices. Analyses of related genres, such as conduct books and fathers' legacies, highlight the unique features and functions of mothers' legacies. Heller also attends to the personal side of the genre, demonstrating that a writer's education, marriages, children, and turns of fortune affect her work within the genre. Journal of Education, 1883
