

GMAT Essay Sample

When a person starts to achieve greatness, the achievements become more important compared to their personal failures. Even though historians did not necessarily cover the personal failures of great people in history, the basic impact that these individuals have achieved in their specific fields should be more obvious than their personal defects. Focusing on such personal weaknesses can only end up with missing the importance of the achievements they have achieved.

Throughout the course of human history, there have been individuals who tend to raise above all their other peers, and reached the peak of their capabilities. These people were often subjects of scrutiny from later historians as well as contemporaneous skeptics. However, nobody can really end up leading an exemplary private life all the time. In fact, no human being has the capability to withstand historical scrutiny and surveillance without having to face personal faults. This is also true even with great individuals.

For instance, there is no doubt that Abraham Lincoln is one of the best Presidents of the United States. He was able to bring the country successfully amidst a substantial revolution, and ended slavery amidst powerful social and economic forces against him all the time. However, he was not a saint himself. He was also prone to depression and moodiness, which eventually affected his personal life. His family life was soon eroded.

Still, such personal fault did not even reduce his capability of being a successful President. Even though we may still hear about his depression bouts, we should focus further into the kind of President that he was. Criticisms are still relevant, to some point, but they are not entirely important. The fact that he was a good president still rises above the idea that he has some personal failures. After all, everybody can still reach achievements despite personal imperfections.
