A Pastor's Toolbox Paul A. Holmes,2014-01-28 Today's parish leaders are expected to be holy and prayerful spiritual guides great preachers and compassionate confessors but also to make important decisions in key areas like finance budgeting hiring and firing fundraising risk management relationship building and more often with virtually no transition or training And with all the requisite education in philosophy and theology they must provide future pastors in addition to formation in priestly spirituality and pastoral care seminaries can do little to prepare priests to deal with the difficult temporal issues pastors face A Pastors Toolbox is designed to help fill that void with valuable information insights and practical tools that pastors need in order to begin handling the complexities of parish management in the twenty first century It candidly addresses questions like What do you need to know about hiring evaluating coaching and inspiring members of your parish team Which budgeting and financial analysis competencies are key to running a strong fiscal house Why is working seamlessly with laity so important to your long term success How do you manage the new skills essential to fundraising What steps should your parish take to protect its assets How do you deploy best practices to operate a parish effectively Each chapter is written by experts both clergy and lay with years of experience and leadership in their respective fields

Training baptist pastors in internet information dissemination capabilities in their ministries. An appraisal of the impact Adefaransi, 2021-12-13 Master's Thesis from the year 2009 in the subject Communications Multimedia Internet New Technologies grade 4 5 language English abstract This study investigated the impact of training Baptist pastors in using the Internet to disseminate information in their ministries Quasi experimental research design was used to examine the impact of training in some aspects of Internet information dissemination and the effects it would have on the ministries of the pastors Thirty pastors were randomly selected and trained from the pool of pastors without experience in the use of the Internet A course content was designed for the training A questionnaire was administered to the pastors before the training as a pre test and the same questionnaire was administered again to the pastors after the training as a post test Ten church members were also randomly selected from each of the churches of these pastors who assessed the impact of the training after the pastors have used the acquired knowledge in their ministries for one month After the pastors have been using the knowledge in their ministries for one month another questionnaire was administered to the church members for the appraisal The Statistical Package for Social Sciences SPSS was used to analyse the data collected

The Pastor in a Changing Society Zawadi Job Kinyamagoha, 2014-10-07 This book examines how social change affects the role of the pastor in an African context Through field study in African churches author Zawadi Job Kinyamagoha explores how pastors work amid the tensions of rapid social change and suggests how pastors can constructively respond to social change by using it as an opportunity in their pastoral ministry Contemporary society is characterized by three cultural spheres the economic sphere the public sphere and the democratic or self governance rule the realities of which many pastors seem to overlook Church authorities seem to adhere rigidly to strict principles and rules without accommodating the realities of society Conversely a changing society demands that pastors work with the reality at hand leaving pastors caught between two conflicting tensions the pressure from church authorities and from a changing social reality The Pastor in a Changing Society seeks to help Tanzanian and African pastors rethink existing doctrines and practices in order to better respond to the reality of a changing society

Christian Work, 1895 Preacher Woman Katie Lauve-Moon, 2021-03-18 When organizations are committed to gender equality what gets in the way of their achieving it How and why do well intentioned people often end up reinforcing sexism Focusing on the Cooperative Baptist Fellowship Katie Lauve Moon s Preacher Woman explores how congregations can be committed to ideas of gender parity while still falling short in practice Lauve Moon investigates how institutional sexism is upheld through both unconscious and conscious biases In doing so she demonstrates how addressing issues of sexism and gender inequality within organizations must extend beyond good intentions and inclusive policies Pastors in Transition Dean R. Hoge, Jacqueline E. Wenger, 2005-05-02

Whether they leave out of preference for another ministry or due to serious conflict pastors who relinquish parish ministry face misunderstanding and even hostility Pastors in Transition brings clarity to this little examined aspect of the pastorate by examining the main reasons why pastors in five Protestant denominations have left parish ministry The fruit of careful sociological research Pastors in Transition presents the findings of the largest ever study of recently ended ministries More than 900 ex ministers representing the Assemblies of God the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America the Lutheran Church Missouri Synod the Presbyterian Church USA and the United Methodist Church were surveyed or interviewed Besides gathering facts and figures the book contains personal stories forthright opinions and concrete recommendations from former pastors for strengthening parish ministry in the future
