Dear Sir/Madam,

I regret to inform you that your application for an Irish Visa has been refused by the Irish Naturalisation and Immigration Service for the following reasons:

ID:- Insufficient documentation submitted in support of the application:- please see link to "Documents Required" as displayed on our website - www.inis.gov.ie

OIB:- Obligations to return to home country have not been deemed sufficient

OC:- Observe the conditions of the visa - the visa sought is for a specific purpose and duration:- the applicant has not satisfied the visa officer that such conditions would be observed.

R:- No confirmation of in date hotel booking for duration of stay

This decision can be appealed within 2 months of the date of this letter. An appeal must be submitted in writing, fully addressing all the reasons for refusal to the Visa Appeals Officer to the address shown.

Appeals received by email or fax will not be processed.

All additional supporting documents should be submitted with your appeal. If you require any original documents returned to you, please also include a photocopy of any such document.

From Détente in Europe to European Détente Angela Romano,2009 The Helsinki Conference on Security and Cooperation in Europe CSCE is usually overlooked in the literature on the Cold War and presented as the seal of détente The Final Act came to be considered as the mere official recognition of the European balance for the sake of a fictitious dialogue and vague statements on the freer circulation of ideas people and information The emerging human rights movements in Eastern Europe then came as the unintentional consequence of a complete diplomatic and political failure It is the opinion of the author that the West neither limited its action to a passive acceptance of a long sponsored Soviet proposal nor sold out half a continent The author carefully traces back the roots of the CSCE and argues that the Helsinki conference was also the result of the development in Western positions and a thoroughly conceived action especially as far as the EC member states were concerned She analyses the internal dynamics of the Western caucus and reveals the divergences on ideas attitudes and goals that emerged between the United States and the European allies In such a connection the author argues that the Hague Summit and the creation of the European Political Cooperation gave a boost to an active role of the EC states and the starting of serious pan European talks The author offers not only a thorough analysis of the Western experience at Helsinki but also new seminal interpretations in the fields of Cold War history transatlantic relations and the history of the European integration By examining and reconciling all these aspects in a common context this book contributes to more complete understanding of both détente and the CSCE A Reference

Guide to United States Department of State Special Files Gerald K. Haines, 1985-06-26 Product information not available The Islamic State in Britain Michael Kenney, 2018-10-18 Drawing on extensive field research with activists on the streets of London Michael Kenney provides the first ethnographic study of a European network implicated in terrorist attacks and sending fighters to the Islamic State For over twenty years al Muhajiroun Arabic for the Emigrants strived to create an Islamic state in Britain through high risk activism A number of Emigrants engaged in violence while others joined the Islamic State in Iraq and Syria Kenney explains why young Britons joined the Emigrants how they radicalized and adapted their activism and why many of them eventually left Through an innovative mix of ethnography and network analysis Kenney explains the structure and processes behind this outlawed network and explores its remarkable resilience What emerges is a complex nuanced portrait that demystifies the Emigrants while challenging conventional wisdom on radicalization and countering violent extremism Central Africa Alex Newton, 1989 Japanese Private International Law Kazuaki Nishioka, Yuko Nishitani, 2021-10-07 This is the leading reference on Japanese private international law in English The chapters systematically cover the whole of Japanese private international law not just questions likely to arise in commercial matters but also in family succession cross border insolvency intellectual property competition antitrust and environmental disputes The chapters do not merely cover the traditional conflict of law areas of jurisdiction applicable law choice of law and enforcement The chapters also look into conflict of law questions arising in arbitration and assess Japanese involvement in the global harmonisation of private international law In addition to summarising relevant principles and scholarly views the authors discuss case law whenever possible and identify deficiencies and anticipate difficulties in the existing law The book thus presents the Japanese conflict of laws through a combination of common and civil law analytical techniques and perspectives providing readers worldwide with a more profound and comprehensive understanding of the subject

Narratives from Beyond the UK Reggae Bassline William 'Lez' Henry, Matthew Worley, 2020-11-25 This book explores the history of reggae in modern Britain from the time it emerged as a cultural force in the 1970s As basslines from Jamaica reverberated across the Atlantic so they were received and transmitted by the UK's Afro Caribbean community From roots to lovers rock from deejays harnessing the dancehall crowd to dub poets reporting back from the socio economic front line British reggae soundtracked the inner city experience of black youth In time reggae's influence permeated the wider culture informing the sounds and the language of popular music whilst also retaining a connection to the street level sound systems clubs and centres that provided space to create protest and innovate This book is therefore a testament to struggle and ingenuity a collection of essays tracing reggae's importance to both the culture and the politics of late twentieth and early twenty first century Britain
