

Clara Calloway graduates

Mr. and Mrs. William Calloway of Fredericksburg announce with great pride the graduation of their daughter, Clara Elizabeth Calloway, from Thomas Jefferson University. Clara received a bachelor's degree in psychology and graduated summa cum laude.

While at TJU, Clara was a member of Delta Kappa sorority and editor of the college newspaper. She also played varsity lacrosse.

She plans to attend graduate school this fall at Northern Virginia University and then pursue a career as a developmental psychologist.

Becoming a Public Relations Writer Ronald D. Smith, 2010-04-26 Becoming a Public Relations Writer guides you through the writing process for public relations practice. It leads you through the various steps and stages of writing and helps you explore many of the formats and styles necessary for public relations writers. Using straightforward, no-nonsense language, realistic examples, easy-to-follow steps, and practical exercises, this text introduces the various types of public relations writing you will encounter as a public relations practitioner. A focus on ethical and legal issues is woven throughout with examples and exercises addressing public relations as practiced by corporations, non-profit agencies, and other types of organizations, both large and small. In addition, the book offers the most comprehensive list of public relations writing formats to be found anywhere, from the standard news release to electronic mail and other opportunities using a variety of technologies and media. Updated to reflect the current technologies and practices of today's PR professional, the contents of this third edition address principles of effective writing useful in all disciplines, focuses on news as the bridge an organization builds to its various publics, overviews a variety of writing formats and environments that provide an internal or controlled approach, laying the foundation for an integrated approach that touches on public relations, advertising, and direct mail. This text concludes with a presentation of the variety of PR writing styles and approaches that form an integrated communication package. In its current comprehensive and accessible approach, Becoming a Public Relations Writer will be an invaluable resource for future and current public relations practitioners.

Pennsylvania School Journal, 1878 The Weekly Law Bulletin and Ohio Law Journal, 1900 The Brevard Rosenwald School Betty J. Reed, 2015-03-21 A century ago the Brevard Rosenwald School in Transylvania County, North Carolina, opened its doors to African American students from the community and the surrounding area. It was a microcosm of the community; it served teachers and pupils, lived on the same streets, shopped in the same stores, worshiped at the same churches, and teachers and parents served on the same committees. They confronted similar social and economic problems and sought each other's advice about issues in daily life. This book is a history of the school with special attention given to the years 1920 to 1966 and its attempts to improve the education of African Americans in the South. It also focuses on the school's beginnings, development, significance to the community, closing, and the integration process, and the Rosenwald community today. The author also presents narratives from former students about their experiences and educational goals, pursuits, and accomplishments at the school and later in their lives.
