O Level Islamiat Paper 1 2012:

The OIC, the UN, and Counter-Terrorism Law-Making Katja Samuel, 2014-07-18 The increasingly transnational nature of terrorist activities compels the international community to strengthen the legal framework in which counter terrorism activities should occur at every level including that of intergovernmental organizations This unique timely and carefully researched monograph examines one such important yet generally under researched and poorly understood intergovernmental organization the Organization of Islamic Cooperation OIC formerly the Organization of the Islamic Conference In particular it analyses in depth its institutional counter terrorism law making practice and the relationship between resultant OIC law and comparable UN norms in furtherance of UN Global Counter Terrorism Strategy goals Furthermore it explores two common mis assumptions regarding the OIC namely whether its internal institutional weaknesses mean that its law making practice is inconsequential at the intergovernmental level and whether its self declared Islamic objectives and nature are irrelevant to its institutional practice or are instead reflected within OIC law Where significant normative tensions are discerned between OIC law and UN law the monograph explores not only whether these may be explicable at least in part by the OIC s Islamic nature and objectives but also whether their corresponding institutional legal orders are conflicting or cooperative in nature and the resultant implications of these findings for international counter terrorism law and policy making This monograph is expected to appeal especially to national and intergovernmental counter terrorism practitioners and policy makers as well as to scholars concerned with the interaction between international and Islamic law norms From the Foreword by Professor Ben Saul The University of Sydney Dr Samuels book must be commended as an original and insightful contribution to international legal scholarship on the OIC Islamic law international law and counter terrorism It fills significant gaps in legal knowledge about the vast investment of international and regional effort that has gone into the global counter terrorism enterprise over many decades and which accelerated markedly after 9 11 The scope of the book is ambitious its subject matter is complex and its sources are many and diverse Dr Samuel has deployed an appropriate theoretical and empirical methodology harnessed an intricate knowledge of the field and brought a balanced judgement to bear to bring these issues to life

Degrade and Destroy Michael R. Gordon, 2025-08-22 This is the ultimate insider's view of perhaps the darkest chapter of the Forever Wars Michael Gordon knows everyone was seemingly everywhere and brings a lifetime of brilliant reporting to telling this crucial story Retired U S Navy admiral James Stavridis 16th Supreme Allied Commander of NATO and author of To Risk it All Nine Crises and the Crucible of Decision An essential account of the struggle against ISIS and of how Presidents Obama Trump and Biden have waged war In the summer of 2014 President Barack Obama faced an unwelcome surprise insurgents from the Islamic State had seized the Iraqi city of Mosul and proclaimed a new caliphate which they were ruling with an iron fist and using to launch terrorist attacks abroad After considerable deliberation President Obama sent American troops back to Iraq The new mission was to degrade and ultimately destroy ISIS primarily by advising Iraqi and Syrian partners who would do the bulk of the fighting and by supporting them with airpower and artillery More than four years later the caliphate had been dismantled the cities of Mosul and Raqqa lay in ruins and several thousand U S troops remained to prevent ISIS from making a comeback The by with and through strategy was hailed as a template for future campaigns But how was the war actually fought What were the key decisions successes and failures And what was learned In Degrade and Destroy the bestselling author and Wall Street Journal national security correspondent Michael R Gordon reveals the strategy debates diplomatic gambits and military operations that shaped the struggle against the Islamic State With extraordinary access to top U S officials and military commanders and to the forces on the battlefield Gordon offers a riveting narrative that ferrets out some of the war s most guarded secrets Degrade and Destroy takes us inside National Security Council meetings at which Obama and his top aides grapple with early setbacks and discuss whether the war can be won It also offers the most detailed account to date of how President Donald Trump waged war delegating greater authority to the Pentagon but jeopardizing the outcome with a rush for the exit Drawing on his reporting in Iraq and Syria Gordon documents the closed door deliberations of U S generals with their Iraqi and Syrian counterparts and describes some of the toughest urban battles since World War II As Americans debate the future of using force abroad Gordon s book offers vital insights into how our wars today are fought against militant foes and the enduring lessons we can draw from them

Cesari,2013-07-24 Jocelyne Cesari examines the idea that Islam might threaten the core values of the West through testimonies from Muslims in France Germany the United Kingdom the Netherlands and the US Her book is an unprecedented exploration of Muslim religious and political life based on several years of field work in Europe and in the United States

Islam, Society, and Politics in Central Asia Pauline Jones,2017-07-20 During the 1990s there was a general consensus that Central Asia was witnessing an Islamic revival after independence and that this occurrence would follow similar events throughout the Islamic world in the prior two decades which had negative effects on both social and political development. Twenty years later we are still struggling to fully understand the transformation of Islam in a region that evolved through a complex and dynamic process involving diversity in belief and practice, religious authority and political intervention. This volume seeks to shed light on these crucial questions by bringing together an international group of scholars to offer a fresh perspective on Central Asian states and societies. The chapters provide analysis through four distinct categories: the everyday practice of Islam across local communities; state policies toward Islam focusing on attempts to regulate public and private practice through cultural, legal and political institutions; and how these differ from Soviet policies; how religious actors influence communities in the practice of Islam; state policies towards the religion and subsequent communal responses to state regulations; and how knowledge of and interaction with the larger Islamic world is shaping Central Asia's current Islamic revival and state responses. The contributors, a multidisciplinary and international group of leading scholars, develop fresh insights that both corroborate and contradict findings from previous research while also highlighting the problem of making any generalizations about Islam in individual states or the region. As such, this volume provides new and impactful analysis for scholars, students and policy makers concerned with Central Asia.

Radicalization in Pakistan Muhammad Shoaib Pervez, 2020-11-29. This book offers a critical analysis of radicalization in Pakistan by deconstructing the global and the official state narratives designed to restrain Pakistani radicalization. Chapters are centered around three distinct themes: educational norms, religious practices and geo-political aspects of radicalization to examine the prevalent state and global practices which propagate Pakistani radicalization discourse. The book argues that there is both a global agenda which presents Pakistan as the epicenter and sponsor of terrorism and a domestic or official agenda that portrays Pakistan as the state which sacrificed and suffered the most in the recent War on Terror which allow the country to gain sympathy as a victim. Delineating both conflicting agendas through a critical analysis of global and state practices in order to understand the myths and narratives of radicalization in Pakistan constructed by powerful elites, the book enables readers to gain a better understanding of this phenomenon. A multidisciplinary critical approach to comprehending radicalization in Pakistan with innovative prescriptions for counter radicalization policy, this book will be of interest to researchers working in the fields of International Relations, Security Studies, Asian Politics as well as Religious Studies and Education, in particular in the context of South Asia.

Islamic Psychology G. Hussein Rassool, 2021-03-30. Islamic Psychology or ilm an nafs, science of the soul, is an important introductory textbook drawing on the latest evidence in the sub-disciplines of psychology to provide a balanced and comprehensive view of human nature, behaviour and experience. Its foundation to develop theories about human nature is based upon the writings of the Qur'an, Sunna, Muslim scholars and contemporary research findings. Synthesising contemporary empirical psychology and Islamic psychology, this book is holistic in both nature and process and includes the physical, psychological, social and spiritual dimensions of human behaviour and experience. Through a broad and comprehensive scope the book addresses three main areas Context perspectives and the clinical applications of applied psychology from an Islamic approach This book is a core text on Islamic psychology for undergraduate and postgraduate students and those undertaking continuing professional development in Islamic psychology psychotherapy and counselling Beyond this it is also a good supporting resource for teachers and lecturers in this field International Encyclopedia of Business Management ,2025-09-01 The Encyclopedia of Business Management Four Volume Set is a comprehensive resource that covers over 200 topics across various areas of business management Each entry is written in an accessible manner making complex concepts easy to understand The encyclopedia addresses interdisciplinary subjects such as cultural entrepreneurship tourism innovation and marketing promotions By emphasizing definitions and practical applications the entries help readers grasp the relevance of each topic Expert editors lead each section ensuring that the contributions are authoritative and well rounded The encyclopedia is divided into seven broad themes including business entrepreneurship human resource management innovation management international business organizational behavior project management supply chain management and sport and tourism management Each section s articles begin with a technical analysis of key definitional issues followed by an exploration of the topic s broader context This structured approach provides a holistic examination of the subjects allowing readers to gain a comprehensive understanding of vital business management concepts Provides a comprehensive overview of the main business management topics Focuses specifically on business management from a range of perspectives Includes new and emerging business management topics Presents an interdisciplinary focus in terms of business management practices Features templates across all chapters for ease of navigation and use Graduate Programs in the Humanities, Arts & Social Sciences 2014 (Grad 2) Peterson's,2013-11-22 Peterson s Graduate Programs in the Humanities Arts Social Sciences 2014 contains comprehensive profiles of more than 11 000 graduate programs in disciplines such as applied arts design area cultural studies art art history conflict resolution mediation peace studies criminology forensics language literature psychology counseling religious studies sociology anthropology archaeology and more Up to date data collected through Peterson s Annual Survey of Graduate and Professional Institutions provides valuable information on degree offerings professional accreditation jointly offered degrees part time and evening weekend programs postbaccalaureate distance degrees faculty students requirements expenses financial support faculty research and unit head and application contact information There are helpful links to in depth descriptions about a specific graduate program or department faculty members and their research and more There are also valuable articles on financial assistance the graduate admissions process advice for international and minority students and facts about accreditation with a current list of accrediting agencies The Horn Engaging the Gulf Aleksi Ylönen,2023-12-28 This book discusses theoretical perspectives of analyzing the relations between the states and non state actors in the Horn of Africa and their counterparts in the Persian Gulf and the Middle East Crucially these relations are examined primarily from the perspective of the diplomatic economic and strategic agency of the African states and societal actors Here domestic political dynamics and local power play a significant role Aleksis Ylén provides a historically informed investigation of recent relations that involve the Gulf States and Türkiye's resurgent interest in the Horn of Africa The analysis focuses on the post Arab Spring period following the Iran nuclear deal and the war in Yemen Featuring case studies from Ethiopia Somalia and Eritrea which highlight engagements of the Horn state and societal actors primarily with the Gulf States and Türkiye the study provides an empirical analysis of the interactions and connections between the two regions The Making of the Medieval Middle East Jack Tannous, 2020-03-31 In the second half of the first millennium CE the Christian Middle East fractured irreparably into competing churches and Arabs conquered the region setting in motion a process that would lead to its eventual conversion to Islam Largely agrarian and illiterate Christians often called the simple outnumbered Muslims well into the era of the Crusades and yet they have typically been invisible in our understanding of the Middle East's history Islamicate Societies Husain Kassim, 2012-01-01 The book can be used as a textbook for the courses in the Islamic Studies at the undergraduate and graduate level The unique feature of this book unlike other books on the subject is that it combines and presents a complete picture of the Islamicate nature of the Egyptian and Muslim Indian societies by demonstrating the changes that took place in various aspects under the impact of the West and colonial rule The book would potentially find currency in Muslim countries especially in Egypt and the Indo Pakistan subcontinent Graduate Programs in Business, Education, Information Studies, Law & Social Work 2014 (Grad 6) Peterson's, 2013-12-20 Peterson's Graduate Programs in Business Education Information Studies Law Social Work 2014 contains comprehensive profiles of more than 11 000 graduate programs in disciplines such as accounting finance business administration management education human resources international business law library information studies marketing social work transportation management and more Up to date info collected through Peterson's Annual Survey of Graduate and Professional Institutions provides valuable data on degree offerings professional accreditation jointly offered degrees part time evening weekend programs postbaccalaureate distance degrees faculty students requirements expenses financial support faculty research and unit head and application contact information There are helpful links to in depth descriptions about a specific graduate program or department faculty members and their research and more Also find valuable articles on financial assistance the graduate admissions process advice for international and minority students and facts about accreditation with a current list of accrediting agencies
