Performance Activities For Story Structure:

Processing Perspectives on Task Performance Peter Skehan, 2014-04-15 Understanding how second language task based performance can be raised is vital for progress with task based approaches to instruction The chapters in this volume all attempt to advance this understanding and do so within a viewpoint which assumes limited attentional capacities and accounts for second language speaking based on Levelt's model of first language speaking Six empirical chapters present original studies They explore the topics of task planning familiarity of information in a task task repetition task characteristics and the effects of using post task transcription The studies interweave with and build upon each other reflecting their conjoint focus on how second language learning memory and attention limitations shape their performance in using the target language In the concluding chapter the accumulated findings across these studies are discussed in terms of the nature of preparation for a task the role of task structure the respective claims of the Tradeoff and Cognition Hypotheses the role of selective attention and the implications of the studies for pedagogy The book is a central reference for students in psycholinguistics second language acquisition and task based language teaching Second Language Task-Based Performance Peter Skehan, 2018-07-04 Second Language Task Based Performance is the first book to synthesize Peter Skehan's theoretical and empirical contributions all in one place With three distinct themes explored in each section theory empirical studies and assessment Skehan's influential body of work is organized in such a way that it provides an updated reflection on the material and makes it relevant to today's researchers Also in each section an early publication is matched by at least one later publication followed by a newly written commentary chapter the combination of which provides the important function of offering a wider ranging discussion This book is an invaluable resource for researchers interested in second language task based research or SLA more generally Personal Narrative Performance and Storytelling Charles Parrott, 2023-11-03 Personal Narrative Performance and Storytelling A Method of Composition from Action to Text offers a practical method for composing and performing personal narrative stories for artistic and academic purposes It is designed to make storytelling accessible to seasoned performers and people who are engaging with the artform for the first time The author's unique method of composing stories from action to text privileges oral composition over writing It draws on anecdotes from the author's many years of coaching storytellers to illustrate concepts throughout the book making it entertaining and user friendly The methods contained in this book can help students and scholars communicate theoretical and scholarly arguments about culture gender race and the environment Anyone looking to harness the power of personal storytelling to speak about the political and the personal in a classroom or on a stage will find Personal Narrative Performance and Storytelling A Method of Composition from Action to Text of great use Additionally the book will be of interest to qualitative researchers and those applying autoethnographic and storytelling methods in communication studies and other related social science and arts disciplines Devising Performance Jane Milling, Deirdre Heddon, 2015-10-11

What is the history of devised theatre Why have theatre makers since the 1950s chosen to devise performances What different sorts of devising practices are there What are the myths attached to devising and what are the realities First published in 2005 Devising Performance remains the only book to offer the reader a history of devising practice Charting the development of collaboratively created performances from the 1950s to the early 21st century it presents a range of case studies drawn from Britain America and Australia Companies discussed include The Living Theatre Open Theatre Australian Performing Group People Show Teatro Campesino Theatre de Complicité Legs on the Wall Forced Entertainment Goat Island and Graeae Providing a history of devising practice Deirdre Heddon and Jane Milling encourage us to look more carefully at the different modes of devising and to consider the implications of our use of these practices in the 21st century

Performance and Portfolio Assessment for Language Minority Students Lorraine Valdez Pierce, J. Michael O'Malley, 1992

Discourse Analysis and Applications Ronald L. Bloom, Loraine K. Obler, Susan De Santi, Jonathan S. Ehrlich, 2013-06-17

Application of analytic discourse techniques to clinical practice is relatively recent This book's contributors begin with the notion that systematic examination of discourse provides a rich source of data for describing the complex relationships among language social context and the cognitive processes that underlie discourse comprehension and production Evidence is provided that when discourse is studied across different clinical populations analysis yields an optimal opportunity for developing dynamic models of brain and language that more thoroughly account for the complexity of language use in social contexts Accordingly studies presented in this volume have a dual focus to examine the implications of discourse research on neurolinguistic theories and to evaluate the contribution of discourse analysis to understanding the clinical status of patients with brain damage As such this volume reports patterns of preserved and impaired discourse behavior in normal adults and in different adult clinical populations It also describes numerous tasks designed to elicit a variety of discourse genres and a host of techniques created to describe how subjects order information and relate ideas across sentences In addition it includes numerous abstract units and linguistic devices targeted to examine those aspects of discourse that govern cohesion organization and topic manipulation This volume is unique because it presents both theoretical and clinical papers that examine a variety of communication pathologies Clinicians often report dissatisfaction with formal test batteries in that results are often at variance with clinical observation of performance in real life situations To address this concern this work proposes methods for examining discourse that move the examiner closer to naturalistic sampling The research presented demonstrates that discourse analysis provides clinically significant information that contributes to the understanding of the cognitive linguistic and social status of people with communication disorders These studies also offer a framework to support continuously evolving diagnostic and treatment paradigms for adults with neurological communication pathologies OECD Good Practices for Performance Budgeting OECD, 2019-05-10 This report presents the OECD's advice on good practice principles and examples in the area of performance budgeting including an explanation of the evidence supporting the adoption and practice by OECD countries

The Routledge International Handbook of Early Literacy Education

Natalia Kucirkova, Catherine E. Snow, Vibeke Grøver, Catherine McBride, 2017-03-31 The Routledge International Handbook of Early Literacy Education offers a pioneering overview of early literacy provision in different parts of the world and brings together interdisciplinary research evidence on effective literacy teaching to inform current and future practice and policy of early literacy. From the problem of identification of literacy difficulties in a particular learning context to supporting the provision of early literacy through digital media, the handbook deals with the major concerns and newest areas of interest in literacy research. With an international and future vision, it provides an accessible guide to the main debates and future trends in the global field of early literacy and informs academics, policy makers, practitioners, educators, and students about innovative early literacy research methods and instruction. The three sections and 30 ground-breaking chapters reflect a conceptual framework of questions asked by scholars and educators interested in looking beyond traditional definitions of literacy. Part I provides contemporary insights collected by internationally renowned scholars on what literacy is and what it can offer to young children in the twenty-first century. Part II is a collection of detailed portraits of 14 countries, regions, or language communities and focuses on early literacy provision, practice, and policy from across the world. Part III outlines key interventions and research-endorsed practices designed to support home-school connections and children's reading and writing skills, as well as vocabulary, phonological awareness, and narrative abilities, with examples drawn from various home-school and community environments. All chapters promote discussion, critical analysis, and questions for reflection and are written in jargon-free language in an easy-to-use, themed format. This handbook is an indispensable reference guide for practising teachers and student teachers, especially those undertaking postgraduate qualifications, as well as early literacy researchers, policy makers, and school-based literacy leaders.

Performance Literacy Through Storytelling

Nile Stanley, Brett Dillingham, 2009 Make storytelling a part of your daily curriculum. This practical guide from Nile Stanley and Brett Dillingham shows busy K-8 teachers how to use storytelling to motivate and engage all readers and writers while supporting the standards. Mini-lessons at beginning, intermediate, and advanced levels help teachers weave storytelling into the fabric of today's standards-based classroom and construct their own skillful literacy lessons. Reluctant and striving readers and writers, English language learners, and even more advanced storytellers will love the confidence they gain as they move from developing to delivering a variety of stories for a variety of audiences. Teachers will love the many benefits of performance literacy or teaching children how to write and perform stories. Develop literacy skills: language, vocabulary, comprehension, writing process, speaking and listening, along with performance skills and self-expression. Easily integrate learning across the content areas. Deepen the connection between home, school, and community. Promote students' creativity and activate their prior knowledge. Encourage respect and self-improvement as students learn to critique each other's stories and performances in a non-threatening manner. Developing Literacy Through Storytelling comes complete with a story index.
