Dish licker and the wolves of India despise Tabaqui because he runs about making mischief and telling tales and eating rags and pieces of leather from the village rubbish heaps But they are afraid of him too because Tabaqui more than anyone else in the jungle is apt to go mad and then he forgets that he was ever afraid of anyone and runs through the forest biting everything in his way Even the tiger runs and hides when little Tabaqui goes mad for madness is the most disgraceful thing that can overtake a wild creature We call it hydrophobia but they call it dewanee the madness and run Enter then and look said Father Wolf stiffly but there is no food here For a wolf no said Tabaqui but for so mean a person as myself a dry bone is a good feast Who are we the Gidur log the jackal people to pick and choose He scuttled to the back of the cave where he found the bone of a buck with some meat on it and sat cracking the end merrily All thanks for this good meal he said licking his lips How beautiful are the noble children How large are their eyes And so young too Indeed indeed I might have remembered that the children of kings are men from the beginning Now Tabaqui knew as well as anyone else that there is nothing so unlucky as to compliment children to their faces It pleased him to see Mother and Father Wolf look uncomfortable Tabaqui sat still rejoicing in the mischief that he had made and then he said spitefully Shere Khan the Big One has shifted his hunting grounds He will hunt among these hills for the next moon so he has told me Shere Khan was the tiger who lived near the Waingunga River twenty miles away He has no right Father Wolf began angrily By the Law of the Jungle he has no right to change his quarters without due warning He will frighten every head of game within ten miles and I I have to kill for two these days His mother did not call him Lungri the Lambe One for nothing said Mother Wolf quietly He has been lame in one foot from his birth That is why he has only killed cattle Now the villagers of the Waingunga are angry with him and he has come here to make our villagers angry They will scour the jungle for him when he is far away and we and our children must run when the grass is set alight Indeed we are very grateful to Shere Khan Shall I tell him of your gratitude said Tabaqui Out snapped Father Wolf Out and hunt with thy master Thou hast done harm enough for one night I go said Tabaqui quietly Ye can hear Shere Khan below in the thickets I might have saved myself the message Father Wolf listened and below in the valley that ran down to a little river he heard the dry angry snarly singsong whine of a tiger who has caught nothing and does not care if all the jungle knows it The fool said Father Wolf To begin a night's work with that noise Does he think that our buck are like his fat Waingunga bullocks H sh It is neither bullock nor buck he hunts to night said Mother Wolf It is Man The whine had changed to a sort of humming purr that seemed to come from every quarter of the compass
