Game Instructions and Rules

The game is designed to be played by groups of four to six students. The game is played in a circle, with each student sitting on the floor.

- Students sit in a circle, facing each other.
- Each student is given a card with a question on it.
- The teacher provides the questions to each student at the beginning of the game.
- Students take turns asking the questions to each other. The student who asks the question goes first, and then each student goes in order, asking the question to the next student.
- The student who asks the question goes first, and then each student goes in order, asking the question to the next student.
- If a student cannot answer the question, they must say "I don't know" and then the student who asked the question goes back to the question.
- The student who asks the question goes first, and then each student goes in order, asking the question to the next student.
