New Pastor Problems:

New Pastorates: Possibilities and Problems Daniel Joseph Green, 2011 Leading Leaders Aubrey Malphurs, 2005-04-01 The key to effective leadership in the vast majority of today's churches lies as much with their governing boards as it does with their pastor. But many churches are led by those who volunteer to chair committees because there is a need yet they have no leadership training to speak of. How can we mean well but sometimes ill-prepared lay people guide the path of a church body? The secret lies in offering effective practical training. Leadership expert Aubrey Malphurs provides this in Leading Leaders. Filling a gaping hole in leadership literature, Malphurs offers workable strategies to train laypeople to successfully lead their churches.

The Pastor-Congregation Duet Gary Harder, 2018-09-28 In a time of shifting worldviews and changing expectations of the church, how does a pastor navigate the challenges, joys, and pains of ministry? How does a church support and hold accountable its pastoral leaders? The key lies in the relationship between pastor and congregation in the duet they are singing in the rhythms of their life together. In this book, Gary Harder reflects on the difficulties and rewards, the missteps and humour that are part of learning that ministry duet. Here he celebrates the mysterious ways God works through and sometimes in spite of the people singing God's songs together. We reach for harmony; we hear dissonant notes. We catch only a glimpse of God's beautiful music. And that is enough.

Ten Commandments for Pastors New to a Congregation Lawrence W. Farris, 2003-10-21 The opening months of a new pastorate are decisive for how that ministry will unfold, so great care should be taken to begin wisely and well. Simply transplanting programs and habits that worked elsewhere, ignoring the specific dynamics of the new congregation and its people, making too few significant changes or making too many insignificant changes will create problems for the new pastor that may never be overcome. Ten Commandments for Pastors New to a Congregation offers specific, down-to-earth principles and guidance on how to make a good beginning, one that will lay the foundation for years of fruitful ministry. Drawing on twenty-five years of parish ministry during which he has mentored many new and transitioning pastors, Lawrence Farris here provides ten guidelines illustrated with relevant examples that identify potential pitfalls and show how to avoid them. Such areas as preaching, pastoral care, self-care, community, and denominational commitments, and role clarity are addressed with an emphasis on practical approaches to ministry in a new setting. Farris also gives clear advice on how to learn the new congregation and its setting, how to set appropriate personal and professional boundaries, and how to stay focused on what matters most in a new ministry. Lively, practical, and brief enough for the new pastor to have time to actually read it, Ten Commandments for Pastors New to a Congregation is a must-read both for pastors on the move and for individuals preparing for first-time ministry.

The Problem with Preachers Dawud Aasiya-Bey, 2021-12-07 The Problem with Preachers: The Similitude of Preaching, Preying, and Pimping By Dawud Aasiya Bey. Dawud Aasiya Bey was born in Washington, D.C., and his parents relocated to Long Island, NY, when he was four years old. He grew up with three brothers in a town called Wyandanch.

in the town of Babylon As a child he attended a private parochial middle school in Deer Park NY which had a church on the campus and this is where his first experience of attending mass occurred He felt that the school was a strict environment because it seemed that minor infractions resulted in punishments that simply did not fit the wrongdoing He envisioned church as a place where people would be friendly and kind but such was not the case as sisters and fathers seemed to roam the school campus like their goal in life was to catch someone doing something wrong Dawud now lives in Murrieta California with his wife and son which is a small city about 60 miles north of San Diego He is currently in the teaching vocation as a biology teacher and has been doing so for over sixteen years Prior to teaching he worked in the IT field which was a volatile environment back in 2000 requiring head hunters to find contractual B2B jobs which were three to six months at best as outsourcing was the norm Such instability introduced him to the teaching profession as he was a substitute teacher between his IT contract jobs His involvement in the church community as a musician bassist allows him to experience the church dynamic from a musician for hire perspective while continuing his passion for playing music that centers on worship Being behind the scenes and playing in ministries throughout the years has given him more insight as playing at churches conferences and gospel events allowed him to observe the networking conversations and sentiments that took place amongst ministries He feels that the lifestyles and views of some preachers contradict what Jesus taught in the Bible
