CDA and PDA Made Simple Bahaa-eddin M. Mazid, 2014-11-24 CDA and PDA Made Simple cuts many long stories short and encapsulates a long standing tradition in modern and contemporary linguistics The theoretical scope of the book encompasses a lengthy review of relevant studies in the area of critical discourse analysis CDA and more broadly in the areas of power control ideology and politics as realized and enacted in discourse The book also brings together a detailed theoretical background on the main tenets and assumptions tools and recipes trends and extensions and critiques and applications of critical and political discourse analysis PDA Its analytical focus is predominantly on how ideology and power are linguistically and meta linguistically realized specifically through transitivity modality metadiscourse and presupposition in some discourse genres in English

Intercultural Communication James W. Neuliep, 2016-12-27 In the fully updated Seventh Edition of Intercultural Communication A Contextual Approach bestselling author James W Neuliep provides a clear contextual model visually depicted by a series of concentric circles for examining communication within cultural microcultural environmental sociorelational and perceptual contexts Students are first introduced to the broadest context the cultural component of the model and progress chapter by chapter through the model to the most specific dimensions of communication Each chapter focuses on one context and explores the combination of factors within that context including setting situation and circumstances Highlighting values ethnicity physical geography and attitudes the book examines means of interaction including body language eye contact and exchange of words as well as the stages of relationships cross cultural management intercultural conflict and culture shock

Matchmaking and the Marriage Market in Postrevolutionary France Andrea Mansker, 2024-12-15 Matchmaking and the Marriage Market in Postrevolutionary France uncovers the unexplored history of matrimonial agents their novel marketing tactics and the rise of personal advertisements to track the commercialization of marriage in nineteenth century France Brokers transformed courtship and marriage into forms of commercial exchange linking them to the burgeoning urban values of abundance pleasure and social mobility By studying agents and readers media fictions on love alongside court cases legislation and literature surrounding the industry Andrea Mansker reveals the intimate and socioeconomic pressures of finding a spouse At the same time she demonstrates how contemporaries used the business of matrimony to reimagine their public identities relationships and courtship rituals following unprecedented historical change due to the French Revolution and Napoleonic wars The matchmaking business both responded to and helped shape national anxieties over fluctuating nuptial rates and changing laws on marriage and divorce As a result marriage itself was reconceived as a commercial contract inseparable from the atomistic and corrupt marketplace The debates and pressures Mansker describes in Matchmaking and the Marriage Market in Postrevolutionary France are still relevant today As contemporary online daters likely understand the possibility of finding a mate in an expanded pool of candidates beyond one's family locality and nation offered individuals the liberating opportunity to explore new personas just as it produced a novel sense of danger about these impersonal transactions in the anonymous marketplace
