A Teacher's Guide to Using the Common Core State Standards With Gifted and Advanced Learners in the English/Language Arts National Assoc For Gifted Children, Todd Kettler, Elizabeth Shaunessy-Dedrick, 2021-09-23 A Teacher's Guide to Using the Common Core State Standards With Gifted and Advanced Learners in the English Language Arts provides teachers and administrators a blueprint for differentiating the Common Core State Standards for English Language Arts for gifted and advanced students through the use of acceleration depth complexity and creativity within and across grade levels. It illustrates the differences between learning experiences for typical and advanced students based on the same standard and provides an array of examples across five of the information text and literary text standards while integrating the other aspects of language arts teaching and learning. The book highlights implementation features such as classroom management and assessment of student work that allow teachers to make data based decisions about instruction for particular students. It also offers guidance to teachers on reading selections for advanced learners at all grade levels.

Multifaceted Assessment for Early Childhood Education Robert J. Wright, 2010 Multifaceted Assessment in Early Childhood is ideal for those on upper division undergraduate courses and first level graduate courses in early childhood education assessment. The book covers the various measures used in a range of assessment dimensions and includes valuable information regarding young children with special needs and English Language Learners which has rarely been touched upon in other textbooks. The chapters are focused on student accessibility and include practical applications of key concepts. Features and benefits: Covers a range of assessment concepts including Formative uses feedback from learning to adapt teaching. Summative i.e. tests quizzes. Authentic focuses on complex deeper tasks. Standardized STAR SAT. Includes coverage of assessment for English language learners and children with special needs topics that are not provided enough coverage in other books including Wortham McAfee Puckett and Mindes. Wright's writing style grabs and engages the reader in the topic. Two of our reviewers who use Wortham specifically cited Wright's writing style as a reason they would adopt our book. A McAfee reviewer is likely to switch for the same reason. Handbook of Special Education James M. Kauffman, Daniel P.

Hallahan, Paige Cullen Pullen, 2017-05-25 The purpose of the Handbook of Special Education is to help profile and bring greater clarity to the already sprawling and continuously expanding field of special education. To ensure consistency across the volume chapter authors review and integrate existing research identify strengths and weaknesses note gaps in the literature and discuss implications for practice and future research. The second edition has been fully updated throughout to take into account recent changes to federal laws as well as the most current academic research and an entirely new section has been added on research methods in special education. Writing and Revising in Second Language Classrooms

Jing Chen, 2025-02-05 This book contributes to the field of L2 writing with a focus on instruction in revision. Theoretically this research provides a better understanding of students' metacognitive knowledge about revision and their self-efficacy for text revision in EFL writing such understanding is vital to make pedagogical connections between cognitive research self efficacy theory and instructional research in writing Moreover the designed questionnaire for data collection and analysis in this study can be employed as a diagnostic or consciousness raising tool in the L2 writing classrooms or be used as a research tool to chart the development of students metacognitive knowledge about revision and self efficacy for text revision over time to contribute to this line of research Pedagogically this study examined the effects of the SRSD model an approach that has shown its effectiveness in improving learners metacognition and impacting their self efficacy in both L1 and L2 writing in the context of revision in an EFL context Hence it broadens the understanding of the feasibility and effectiveness of the SRSD model

Student and Teacher Writing Motivational Beliefs Steve Graham, Gary A. Troia, Gustaf Bernhard. Uno Skar, 2024-06-21. The study of students' motivational beliefs about writing and how such beliefs influence writing has increased since the publication of John Hays' 1996 model of writing. This model emphasized that writers' motivational beliefs influence how and what they write. Likewise, increased attention has been devoted in recent years to how teachers' motivational beliefs about writing, especially their efficacy to teach writing, impact how writing is taught and how students progress as writers. As a result, there is a need to bring together in a Research Topic studies that examine the role and influence of writing beliefs. Historically, the psychological study of writing has focused on what students write or the processes they apply when writing. Equally important but investigated less often are studies examining how writing is taught and how teachers' efforts contribute to students' writing. What has been less prominent in the psychological study of writing are the underlying motivational beliefs that drive or inhibit students' writing or serve as catalysts for teachers' actions in the classroom when teaching writing. This Research Topic will bring together studies that examine both students and teachers' motivational beliefs about teaching writing. This will include studies examining the operation of such beliefs, how they develop, cognitive and affective correlates, how writing motivational beliefs can be fostered, and how they are related to students' writing achievement. By focusing on both students and teachers' beliefs, the Research Topic will provide a more nuanced and broader picture of the role of motivation beliefs in writing and writing instruction. This Research Topic includes papers that address students' motivational beliefs about writing, teachers' motivational beliefs about writing or teaching writing. Students' motivational beliefs about writing include beliefs about the value and utility of writing, writing competence, attitudes toward writing, goal orientation, motives for writing, identity, epistemological underpinnings, writing and attributions for success/failure, as examples. Teachers' motivational beliefs include these same judgements as well as beliefs about their preparation and their students' competence and progress as writers, to provide additional examples. This Research Topic is interested in papers that examine how such beliefs operate, develop, are related to other cognitive and affective variables, how they are impacted by instruction, and how they are related to students' writing performance. Submitted studies can include original research, both quantitative, qualitative, or mixed methods, meta-analysis, and reviews of the literature.
