Singapore Perspectives 2012 Soon Hock Kang, 2013 The Singapore Perspectives series is a yearly publication that provides critical analysis of emerging trends and issues Singapore faces in terms of social economic and political development It is a quick and essential reference for understanding the broad policy discussions that animate thought leaders policy makers and the public in the country during the immediate period or that are likely to do so in the short and medium term This edited volume brings together papers presented at the Singapore Perspectives 2012 Conference The Conference came in the wake of Singapore's General Elections held on May 7 2011 whose outcome resulted in Singapore's political leaders taking a fresh look at Singapore's public policy More importantly the government has pledged to reconnect with all segments of society as it grapples with the issues that have arisen Some of the major issues discussed in the book include the widening income gap the affordability of housing and healthcare as well as the re examination of the processes of citizen participation in policy making The book also includes the speech made by Mr Tharman Shanmugaratnam Deputy Prime Minister of Singapore that outlines his views on the model of governance and policies that would help the country bridge the divides Co published by the think tank the Institute of Policy Studies Singapore this is a useful publication for those with an interest in understanding the governance challenges facing a small highly globalised economy and nation state or those who want a quick feel of the pulse of Singapore Navy Photographer's Mate Training Series Tom Regina, 1983

World Development Report 1994 ,1994 World Development Report 1994 examines the link between infrastructure and development and explores ways in which developing countries can improve both the provision and the quality of infrastructure services In recent decades developing countries have made substantial investments in infrastructure achieving dramatic gains for households and producers by expanding their access to services such as safe water sanitation electric power telecommunications and transport Even more infrastructure investment and expansion are needed in order to extend the reach of services especially to people living in rural areas and to the poor But as this report shows the quantity of investment cannot be the exclusive focus of policy Improving the quality of infrastructure service also is vital Both quantity and quality improvements are essential to modernize and diversify production help countries compete internationally and accommodate rapid urbanization The report identifies the basic cause of poor past performance as inadequate institutional incentives for improving the provision of infrastructure To promote more efficient and responsive service delivery incentives need to be changed through commercial management competition and user involvement Several trends are helping to improve the performance of infrastructure First innovation in technology and in the regulatory management of markets makes more diversity possible in the supply of services Second an evaluation of the role of government is leading to a shift from direct government provision of services to increasing private sector provision and recent experience in many countries with public private partnerships is highlighting new ways to increase efficiency and expand services Third increased concern about social and environmental sustainability has heightened public interest in infrastructure design and performance
