Controversial Books in K-12 Classrooms and Libraries Randy Bobbitt, 2019-10-04 Controversial Books in K 12 Classrooms and Libraries Challenged Censored and Banned analyzes the history of controversy surrounding assigned reading in K 12 classrooms and books available in school libraries Randy Bobbitt outlines the history of book banning and controversy in the United States stemming from 1950s conservative Cold War values of patriotism and respect for authority and ramping up through the 1960s and onward as media coverage and parental intervention into the inner workings of schools increased The author claims that sensitive topics including sexuality suicide and drug use do not automatically imply the glorification of deviant behavior but can be used constructively to educate students about the reality of life Bobbitt argues that in an effort to shield children from the dangers of controversial issues parents and administrators are depriving them of the ability to discover and debate values that are inconsistent with their own and those around them teaching instead that avoidance of different viewpoints is the solution Scholars of education communication literature and policy will find this book especially useful

Science and Magic in the Modern World Eugene Subbotsky, 2018-10-04 Science and Magic in the Modern World is a unique text that explores the role of magical thinking in everyday life It provides an excellent psychological look at the subconscious belief in magic in both popular culture and society as well as experimental research that considers human consciousness as a derivative of belief in the supernatural thus showing that our feelings emotions attitudes and other psychological processes follow the laws of magic This book synthesises the science of natural phenomena and the magic of the supernatural to present an interesting look at the juxtaposition of the inner and outer selves Fusing research into psychological disorders subconscious feelings as well as the rising presence of artificial intelligence this book demonstrates how an engagement with magical thinking can enhance one's creativity and cognitive skills Science and Magic in the Modern World is an invaluable resource for those studying consciousness as well as those looking at the effect of magical thinking on religion politics science and society

Sharing the Blue Crayon Mary Anne Buckley, 2023-10-10 Social and emotional learning is at the heart of good teaching but as standards and testing requirements consume classroom time and divert teachers focus these critical skills often get sidelined In Sharing the Blue Crayon Mary Anne Buckley shows teachers how to incorporate social and emotional learning into a busy day and then extend these skills to literacy lessons for young children Through simple activities such as read alouds sing alongs murals and performances students learn how to get along in a group empathize with others develop self control and give and receive feedback all while becoming confident readers and writers As Buckley shares Every day we ask young children to respectfully converse question debate and collaborate about literature science math problems history and more That s sophisticated stuff and requires sophisticated skills Social and emotional skills are essential to helping children communicate their knowledge and articulate their questions We must teach students how to build respectful caring classroom communities where students are supported and fully engaged in the learning and everyone can reach their potential In this fresh and original book Buckley captures the humor wonder honesty and worries of our youngest learners and helps teachers understand how to harness their creativity and guide their conversations toward richer expressions of knowledge Teachers of special populations will especially appreciate Buckley s successful strategies for reaching English language learners and children from high poverty homes who may not have strong foundations for academic discourse As Buckley reminds us By understanding one another orally and socially at first then using those community building exchanges to strengthen the skills of reading and writing we experience the authentic pride and sweet joys of learning understanding and connecting to one another
