Handbook on Family and Community Engagement Sam Redding, Marilyn Murphy, Pam Sheley, 2011-12-01 Thirty six of the best thinkers on family and community engagement were assembled to produce this Handbook and they come to the task with varied backgrounds and lines of endeavor Each could write volumes on the topics they address in the Handbook and quite a few have The authors tell us what they know in plain language succinctly presented in short chapters with practical suggestions for states districts and schools The vignettes in the Handbook give us vivid pictures of the real life of parents teachers and kids In all their portrayal is one of optimism and celebration of the goodness that encompasses the diversity of families schools and communities across our nation

Building Parent Involvement Through the Arts Michael Sikes, 2007-01-18 Professionals who want to build authentic parent and community involvement in their schools will find a champion in this book Wendy Caszatt Allen Teacher Mid Prairie Middle School Kalona IA An invaluable resource full of fun and relevant plans that are most assuredly teacher student and parent friendly The best I have read Ilona Anderson Principal Flagstaff Middle School AZ Schools that utilize techniques from this book will benefit not only from an increase in student engagement and achievement Beautifully written Marscha Greenfeld Senior Program Facilitator National Network of Partnership Schools Create a rich cultural arts program that inspires parent involvement Research has shown that parents play an enormous role in their children s school success However principals and teachers struggle to find ways to get parents more involved Educator and consultant Michael Sikes shows principals and teachers how to create an arts rich school that enthusiastically welcomes families and community members promotes diversity and multicultural appreciation develops cognitive skills and engages parents through a myriad of creative activities This exciting resource explores all types of creative art programs including dance theater folk art literature visual arts and music An extensive toolkit this book not only explores why but how to design and implement an arts program that brings families back to the classroom Ready to use features and strategies are packed into this practical guide Sample lesson plans and worksheets including materials lists step by step instructions and roles for parents and families Dozens of project and activity ideas tied to national standards Project assessments and evaluations How to s for finding community resources and funding Templates forms checklists surveys and much more School administrators and teachers can use this essential guide for welcoming families into their schools and creating a friendly place where student work is celebrated and parent contributions are embraced and valued

Growing Together Jeffrey L. Schein, Judith S. Schiller, 2001

Making Community Connections Connie L. Knapp, Orton Family Foundation. Community Mapping Program, 2003 Making Community Connections The Orton Family Foundation Community Mapping Program is designed to bring teams of teachers and their students together with community members to study a problem a resource a condition any matter of interest and importance to the community The school work includes gathering and examining existing information discovering new facts through field investigation and mapping the resource using GIS

GPS tools Not only do the students meet and work with community mentors and experts who participate in the classroom and help with the field studies they also typically hold public forums to gather input on the resource and their work At the end of the semester or project the students hold a public forum to present their work in a variety of forms including video conferences speeches and presentations reading of narratives display of hand drawn maps GIS maps etc providing a body of research to the community which can be used to address immediate concerns and help plan for the future The use of the word mapping in the name of the program indicates the importance of and the commitment to the use of GIS GPS mapping technology The Orton Family Foundation Community Mapping Program has found that the use of technology and particularly this mapping technology excites students and provides a powerful incentive to participate However the program this book and place based education in general call for more than just the mapping of resources they entail a more inclusive and integrative look at the world we all live in Invariably the Community Mapping Program makes more clearly visible the connections of the many and varied factors influencing or affecting the particular object of study Concepts of sustainability responsibility integration and the larger picture find their way into classroom discussions and are then mapped in a variety of ways The materials in Making Community Connections have been constructed to provide a solid foundation and flexible framework for original projects created and developed by students their teachers and their communities allowing explorations and investigations of places and problems of interest and concern to them Book jacket
