Scroll 134 Malachi Z York:

Black Zion Yvonne Chireau, Nathaniel Deutsch, 1999-12-16 This volume explores the myriad ways in which African American religions have encountered Jewish traditions beliefs and spaces In contrast to previous works which have typically focused on the social and political relationship between blacks and Jews Black Zion places religion at the center of its discussion thereby illuminating a critically important but little explored aspect of black Jewish relations in America The essays gathered here examine groups such as the Nation of Islam and the Hebrew Israelites individuals such as Martin Luther King Jr and Abraham Joshua Heschel and topics such as the transformation of synagogue space into African American churches and the symbolic role of the Jew in the Haitian religious imagination This collection draws on sacred texts interviews and ethnographic and archival research to discuss the shared elements in black and Jewish sacred life as well as the development and elaboration of new religious identities by African Americans Featuring contributions from a group of renowned scholars and writers this groundbreaking volume reveals a great deal about both African American religions and the meaning of Judaism in the contemporary world It is essential reading for students of religion history cultural studies black studies and American studies

Jewish Studies at the Crossroads of Anthropology and History Ra'anana S. Boustany, Oren Kosansky, Marina Rustow, 2011-01-24 Over the past several decades the field of Jewish studies has expanded to encompass an unprecedented range of research topics historical periods geographic regions and analytical approaches Yet there have been few systematic efforts to trace these developments to consider their implications and to generate new concepts appropriate to a more inclusive view of Jewish culture and society Jewish Studies at the Crossroads of Anthropology and History brings together scholars in anthropology history religious studies comparative literature and other fields to chart new directions in Jewish studies across the disciplines This groundbreaking volume explores forms of Jewish experience that span the period from antiquity to the present and encompass a wide range of textual ritual spatial and visual materials The essays give full consideration to non written expressions of ritual performance artistic production spoken narrative and social experience through which Jewish life emerges More than simply contributing to an appreciation of Jewish diversity the contributors devote their attention to three key concepts authority diaspora and tradition that have long been central to the study of Jews and Judaism Moving beyond inherited approaches and conventional academic boundaries the volume reconsiders these core concepts reorienting our understanding of the dynamic relationships between text and practice and continuity and change in Jewish contexts More broadly this volume furthers conversation across the disciplines by using Judaic studies to provoke inquiry into theoretical problems in a range of other areas
