Dynamic Truth Rolf Pöhler, 2020-08-28 DYNAMIC TRUTH is a reprint of the author s groundbreaking dissertation on Change in Seventh day Adventist Theology Submitted in 1995 and initially published in 1999 Part I and 2000 Part II it is the first and only in depth study to date dealing with the issue of doctrinal development from an Adventist perspective Part I analyzes the intricate problem of doctrinal development and presents a historical survey of theories of doctrinal change classifying them in three ideal types In the author s view a dialectic approach concerned about substantial continuity as well as authentic change can best avoid the pitfalls of dogmatic immobilism and revisionism Part II provides a detailed study of the problem of doctrinal change in a Seventh day Adventist setting It analyzes the extent nature and direction of doctrinal developments in the light of the religious background of the church and the social forces at work in it It also discusses the church's response to doctrinal adjustments and Ellen G. White's involvement in and conception of doctrinal change. The study concludes that Adventist teachings have been significantly affected by theological and hermeneutical developments under the impact of social forces nudging the church closer towards evangelical Protestantism. Ellen White, co-founder of the church, was personally involved in theological change. Her concept of doctrinal development shows a remarkable depth of insight and presents a well-balanced approach to the dynamics of faith and truth. The Seventh-day Adventist Church, which recently passed the 12 million member mark, is a movement that owes much of its identity to a unique Missiology. This short study is an effort to contribute to the most important aspects and issues of this Missiology as reflected in Seventh-day Adventist history and in the present situation of the denomination. The author considers the historical patterns of the expansion of the church and the theological background. 28

Fundamental Beliefs Simply Put Loron Wade, 2009. Simon's blessing: When the bell rings it's for you. You can't get there from here. When He comes He takes over. Return to reason. Who are you? Can you explain the Holocaust? Whatever it takes. Beyond the beginning. Crossing the line. Finding the remnant. Getting along. Peace child. In my Father's arms. You too are gifted. A hand reaching out. Knowing the right answer isn't enough. Finding peace and lasting happiness. Who is on your list? Get off the column. A good marriage. King of the mountain. Jonah's mistake. The beginning of life eternal. To know the truth. Eternity will not be long enough.
