Corrections Mary K. Stohr, Anthony Walsh, 2021-01-10 Written by former practitioners who are experts in the field Corrections The Essentials Fourth Edition addresses the most important topics in corrections in a brief yet comprehensive format Authors Mary K Stohr and Anthony Walsh introduce students to the history and development of correctional institutions while offering a unique perspective on ethics and special populations The Fourth Edition provides insights into the future of corrections as well as updated coverage of the most important issues impacting the field today This title is accompanied by a complete teaching and learning package      Mobilized by Injustice Hannah L. Walker, 2020-01-10 In Mobilized by Injustice Hannah L Walker excavates the power of criminal justice to inspire political action Mobilization results from the belief that one's experiences are a consequence of policies that target people like one's self on the basis of group affiliation like race ethnicity and class Walker offers a compelling account of the criminal justice system as a spark for the formation of a movement with the potential to remake American politics Documents of the Assembly of the State of New York New York (State). Legislature. Assembly, 1894 Mass Supervision Vincent Schiraldi, 2023-09-12 With a foreword by Bruce Western Named one of the Best Books of the Year by NPR Shortlisted 2024 Stephan Russo Book Prize for Social Justice The most comprehensive critique of probation and parole and a provocative and compelling argument for abolishing both from the former Probation Commissioner of New York City Imagine if probation didn't exist And I came to you with 80 million and 30 000 people the courts considered troubled and troubling And you could do anything you wanted with that money to make New York City safer and help people turn their lives around Would you go out and hire a thousand civil service protected bureaucrats to supervise people as they piss in a cup once a week and to tell them to go forth and sin no more Vincent Schiraldi's Job Interview with NYC Mayor Mike Bloomberg We've heard a lot in recent years about the nearly 2.1 million people incarcerated in American prisons and jails But what about the approximately 4 million more who are on probation and parole monitored by the state at great expense and at risk of being sent to prison at the whim of a probation or parole officer for the least imaginable infraction Vincent Schiraldi was New York City probation commissioner under Mayor Bloomberg supervising a system charged with monitoring 30 000 people on a daily basis In Mass Supervision he combines firsthand experience with deep research on the inadequately explored practices of probation and parole to illustrate how these forms of state supervision have strayed from their original goal of providing constructive and rehabilitative alternatives to prison They have become instead Schiraldi argues a recidivism trap for people trying to lead productive lives in the wake of a criminal conviction Schiraldi offers the first full and up to date account of these two key aspects of our criminal justice system showing that these practices increase incarceration have little impact on crime rates and needlessly disrupt countless lives Ultimately he argues that they should be dramatically downsized or even abolished completely Handbook of Automated Scoring Duanli Yan, André A. Rupp, Peter W. Foltz, 2020-02-26 Automated scoring engines require a careful balancing of the contributions of technology NLP psychometrics artificial intelligence and the learning sciences The present handbook is evidence that the theories methodologies and underlying technology that surround automated scoring have reached maturity and that there is a growing acceptance of these technologies among experts and the public From the Foreword by Alina von Davier ACTNext Senior Vice President Handbook of Automated Scoring Theory into Practice provides a scientifically grounded overview of the key research efforts required to move automated scoring systems into operational practice It examines the field of automated scoring from the viewpoint of related scientific fields serving as its foundation the latest developments of computational methodologies utilized in automated scoring and several large scale real world applications of automated scoring for complex learning and assessment systems The book is organized into three parts that cover 1 theoretical foundations 2 operational methodologies and 3 practical illustrations each with a commentary In addition the handbook includes an introduction and synthesis chapter as well as a cross chapter glossary

Correctional Theory
Francis T. Cullen, Cheryl Lero Jonson, 2016-01-18 The Second Edition of Correctional Theory Context and Consequences continues to identify and evaluate the major competing theories used to guide the goals policies and practices of the correctional system Authors Francis T Cullen and Cheryl Lero Jonson demonstrate that changes in theories can legitimize new ways of treating and punishing offenders and they help readers understand how transformations in the social and political context of U S society impact correctional theory and policy Designed to motivate readers to become sophisticated consumers of correctional information the book emphasizes the importance of using evidence based information to guide decisions rather than relying on nonscientific commonsense or ideology based beliefs

Introduction to Corrections
Robert D. Hanser, 2023-05-12 Introduction to Corrections provides students with a comprehensive foundation of corrections that is practitioner driven and grounded in modern research and theoretical origins Experienced correctional practitioner scholar and author Robert D Hanser shows students how the corrections system works from classification security and treatment to demonstrating how and why correctional practices are implemented The Fourth Edition includes a special emphasis on the role of technology in each chapter new topics on medical care in jail female drug offenders and controversies around the death penalty and the impact of the COVID 19 pandemic on correctional practices Data and examples drawn from federal government documents along with exercises that reinforce concepts in the text further aid student learning

Closing the Justice Gap for Adult and Child Sexual Assault Anne Cossins, 2020-10-21 This book examines the justice gap and trial process for sexual assault against both adults and children in two jurisdictions England and Wales and New South Wales Australia Drawing on decades of research it investigates the reality of the policing and prosecution of sexual assault offences often seen as one of the hardest crimes to prosecute across two similar jurisdictions Despite the introduction of the many reform options detailed in the book satisfactory outcomes for victims and the public are still difficult to obtain Cossins takes a new approach by examining the nature and effects of adversarialism on vulnerable witnesses jury decision making and the structures of power within the trial process to show how and at what points that process is weighted against complainants of sexual assault in order to make evidence based suggestions for reform She argues that this justice gap is a result of a moralistic adversarial culture which fosters myths and misconceptions about rape and child sexual assault thus requiring the prosecution to prove a complainant s moral worthiness She argues this culture can only be eliminated by a radical replacement of the adversarial system with a trauma informed system By reviewing the relevant psychological literature this book documents the triggers for re traumatisation within an adversarial trial and discusses the reform measures that would be necessary to transform the sexual assault trial from one where the complainant s moral worthiness is on trial to a fully functioning trauma informed system It speaks to students and academics across subjects including law criminology gender studies and psychology and practitioners in law and victim services as well as policy makers

Decision Making, Assessment and Risk in Social Work Brian J. Taylor, 2017-04-10 At a time when accountability and the avoidance of risk are increasingly demanded of social workers the ability to make clear and informed decisions is essential This book written for practicing social workers undertaking their ASYE and compulsory CPD has been designed to help professionals make sound judgments in increasingly complex contexts and under pressure The focus is on empowering front line professionals through reflective practice so that they are able to draw on multiple factors and perspectives and make sound problem solving judgements The book begins with the core concepts client focus and legal background before moving on to consider the collaborative processes and the nature of individual judgements It then considers particular dimensions of social work decision making such as safeguarding taking risks assessment and dynamic decision tools and processes It then concludes by look at the organisational context of decision management with a focus on supervision training and effective communication

The Long Term Alice Kim, Erica Meiners, Jill Petty, 2018-10-09 The voices of those experiencing life in the long term are often not heard This collection of essays and personal stories from the people most impacted by long term incarceration in Statesville Prison bring light to the crisis of mass incarceration and the human cost of excessive sentencing Compelling moving narratives from those most affected by the prison industrial complex make a compelling case that death by incarceration is cruel and unusual punishment Implemented in the 1990 s and 2000 s harsh sentencing policies commonly labeled tough on crime became a bipartisan political agenda These policies had real impacts on families and communities particularly as they caused the removal of many non white and poor individuals from cities like Chicago The Long Term brings into the light what has previously been hidden a counter narrative to the tough on crime agenda and an urgent plea for a more humane criminal justice system The book is a critical contribution to the current debate around challenging the mass incarceration and ending mandatory sentencing especially for non violent offenders

Prison and Social Death Joshua M. Price, 2015-07-01 The United States imprisons more of its citizens than any other nation in the world To be sentenced to prison is to face systematic violence humiliation and perhaps worst of all separation from family and community It is to borrow Orlando Patterson s term for the utter isolation of slavery to suffer social death In Prison and Social Death Joshua Price exposes the unexamined cost that prisoners pay while incarcerated and after release drawing upon hundreds of often harrowing interviews conducted with people in prison parolees and their families Price argues that the prison separates prisoners from desperately needed communities of support from parents spouses and children Moreover this isolation of people in prison renders them highly vulnerable to other forms of violence including sexual violence Price stresses that the violence they face goes beyond physical abuse by prison guards and it involves institutionalized forms of mistreatment ranging from abysmally poor health care to routine practices that are arguably abusive such as pat downs cavity searches and the shackling of pregnant women And social death does not end with prison

The condition is permanent following people after they are released from prison Finding housing employment receiving social welfare benefits and regaining voting rights are all hindered by various legal and other hurdles The mechanisms of social death Price shows are also informal and cultural Ex prisoners face numerous forms of distrust and are permanently stigmatized by other citizens around them A compelling blend of solidarity civil rights activism and social research Prison and Social Death offers a unique look at the American prison and the excessive and unnecessary damage it inflicts on prisoners and parolees
