Edwards,2022-03-24 This is a detailed examination of vigilantism in 1970s American film from its humble niche beginnings as a response to relaxing censorship laws to its growth into a unique subgenre of its own Cary Edwards explores the contextual factors leading to this new cycle of films ranging from Joe 1970 and The French Connection 1971 to Dirty Harry 1971 and Taxi Driver 1976 all of which have been challenged by contemporary critics for their gratuitous copycat inspiring violence Yet close analysis of these films reveals a recurring focus on the emerging moral panic of the 1970s a problematisation of Law and Order s role in contemporary society and an increasing awareness of the impossibility of American myths of identity

Manhood in Hollywood from Bush to Bush David

Greven,2010-01-01 A struggle between narcissistic and masochistic modes of manhood defined Hollywood masculinity in the period between the presidencies of George H W Bush and George W Bush David Greven s contention is that a profound shift in representation occurred during the early 1990s when Hollywood was transformed by an explosion of films that foregrounded non normative gendered identity and sexualities In the years that have followed popular cinema has either emulated or evaded the representational strategies of this era especially in terms of gender and sexuality One major focus of this study is that in a great deal of the criticism in both the fields of film theory and queer theory masochism has been positively cast as a form of male sexuality that resists the structures of normative power while narcissism has been negatively cast as either a regressive sexuality or the bastion of white male privilege Greven argues that narcissism is a potentially radical mode of male sexuality that can defy normative codes and categories of gender whereas masochism far from being radical has emerged as the default mode of a traditional normative masculinity This study combines approaches from a variety of disciplines psychoanalysis queer theory American studies men s studies and film theory as it offers fresh readings of several important films of the past twenty years including Casualties of War The Silence of the Lambs Fight Club The Passion of the Christ Auto Focus and Brokeback Mountain The Laser Disc Newsletter ,1997 Faery Queen Michelle

The Epic Film Derek Elley, 2013-12-04 As Charlton Heston put it There s a temptingly simple definition of the epic film it s the easiest kind of picture to make badly This book goes beyond that definition to show how the film epic has taken up one of the most ancient art forms and propelled it into the modern world covered in twentieth century ambitions anxieties hopes and fantasies This survey of historical epic films dealing with periods up to the end of the Dark Ages looks at epic form and discusses the films by historical period showing how the cinema reworks history for the changing needs of its audience much as the ancient mythographers did The form s main aim has always been to entertain and Derek Elley reminds us of the glee with which many epic films have worn their label and of the sheer fun of the genre He shows the many levels on which these films can work from the most popular to the specialist each providing a considerable source of enjoyment For instance spectacle the genre s most characteristic trademark is merely the cinema s own transformation of the literary epic s taste for the grandiose Dramatically it can serve many purposes as a resolution of personal tensions the chariot race in Ben Hur of monotheism vs idolatry Solomon and Sheba or of the triumph of a religious code The Ten Commandments Although to many people Epic equals Hollywood throughout the book Elley stresses debt to the Italian epics which often explored areas of history with which Hollywood could never have found sympathy Originally published 1984
