Marine Microplastics and the Quest for Remediation Mohammad Oves, Anish Khan, Majed Al-Shaeri, 2025-08-30 This informative book discusses the issue of microplastic pollution in marine environments It explains the intricate ways in which these minuscule particles have crept into the world s oceans impacting marine life ecosystems and ultimately human health The book provides a detailed depiction of pristine marine environments which are increasingly being compromised by microplastic pollution The effects of these microplastics are the main focus of the book It provides alarming evidence that marine life from the tiniest plankton to the largest whales mistakenly identifies microplastics as food Plastics are introduced into the food chain accumulating in the trophic levels of humans in addition to causing internal obstructions and health problems for the animals The book also shows how microplastics can carry infections and toxins amplifying their negative consequences It discusses cutting edge technical solutions for ocean cleanup as well as international agreements and laws aimed at trash management and plastic production The book emphasizes the value of scientific investigation in determining the full scope of the issue and in creating biodegradable substitutes for conventional plastics This book will be of significant interest to environmental enthusiasts and activists academics scientists and researchers studying marine biology oceanography and environmental science policymakers and government agencies as well as industry professionals working in plastics manufacturing waste management and environmental consulting

Teaching for Racial Equity Tonya B. Perry, Steven Zemelman, Katy Smith, 2023-10-10 Recipient of the 2022 Excellence in Equity Award It is not enough to be against racism in education teachers must be actively antiracist Yet how do we start reflecting on our own beliefs and lives so we can truly teach for racial literacy In the award winning Teaching for Racial Equity Becoming Interrupters authors Tonya Perry Steven Zemelman and Katy Smith engage in honest conversations between educators of color and their white colleagues Authentic inspiring and sometimes uncomfortable teachers share stories of personal histories and experiences that shaped them as people and educators In this book you will find Strategies to understand different backgrounds through a racial lens and ways to address potentially difficult conversations with fellow educators In depth overview of Yolanda Sealey Ruiz s Archaeology of Self™ and how it can be personally and professionally adopted Lists of resources for teaching about and actively interrupting racism in education and tools that document systemic inequalities in the classroom Ways to facilitate student led conversations which examine race and inequitable conditions found nationwide By examining inequalities found at a systemic level teachers can start to remove some of their internal biases and allow students to show who they truly are In turn this can help create a school curriculum that makes space for BIPOC voices that inspire and invite students to share Teaching for Racial Equity Becoming Interrupters provides a resource for teachers and educators to critically reflect and begin work to interrupt racism at all levels
